"Robert McCord and Andrew Chestnut came from Westmoreland County, Penn., in 1798, and settled in Pymatuning Township. The former was of Irish parentage, and a man of very good education. He taught a school in the township in 1814-15-16, and was regarded as quite a successful teacher. He located about two miles east of the site of Transfer, where a daughter was born in 1800. She became the wife of Thomas Gill. When the War of 1812 commenced McCord's son Robert raised a company to fight the hereditary foe of his native land. A roster of this company will be found in a previous chapter. He was one of the leading pioneers of the valley throughout its early history. Andrew Chestnut was a relative of McCord and also served in the War of 1812." Robert is in the listing of taxables for Neshannock Township for 1800 and Saleen Township for 1801 (Mercer County History).

following is the Will of Robert McCord written July 3, 1836, in Mercer Co.,PA:

"Be it remembered that I Robert McCord of Pymatuning Township, Mercer County and State of Pennsylvania being advanced in years and being weak in body but of sound mind and memory, and I do therefore for the better settling my affairs according to my mind make and set forth this my last will and testament in manners and form following, viz: I do give and bequeath to my beloved wife Rosanna McCord all my property real and personal to be in and under her care until my youngest son Washington McCord is twenty one years old. Then my will is that my land be divided (except that part hereafter mentioned to Robert McCord & also to Walker McCord) that is the farm I live on to be divided as nearly equal as may be running the line from East to West except such offsets as may be necessary to divide the orchard equally between them. There my will is that my sons O.H.Perry and Washington McCord farm the place in order and that O.H.Perry have one third of the grain and half the hay that is raised on the farm, the other part of the hay and grain to be baled and put up in good order for the use of the widow all to be at her disposal.

And further my will is that my two daughters Sarah McCord and Rosanna McCord shall have property equal to my other daughters to be given to them by me or their mother as may best suit our circumstances. That is before or after my death. And further my will is that my son O.H.Perry aid and assist Washington to build a frame barn of middling size on his part of the farm. And also my will is that Washington after he arrives to twenty one years old shall have the care of his mother and provide & sustain her both in sickness or health as she may need during her natural life if she remains a widow.

2nd I give and bequeath to my son Robert McCord the lot or parcel of land where he now lives extending to what is called the line fence between him and me and containing about or near 30 acres to him and his heirs forever.

3rd I give and bequeath to my son Walker McCord all that lot or parcel of land on which he now lives containing one hundred acres & allowance to him and his heirs forever.

4th I give and bequeath to my son John McCord and to James McCord to William McCord to Jane McCord to Joseph McCord to David McCord to Rachel Gill to Daniel McCord to Carnahan McCord and Rebecca McLaughlin the following sum or sums of money. That is one dollar to each of them if demanded within one year after my decease or death.

5th I do hereby appoint Rosanna McCord and O.H.Perry McCord executors of this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former will by me made.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this third day of July in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty six 1836.

Signed sealed published and declared by the above named Robert McCord to be his last will and testament in the presence of us who have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses in the presence of the testator." Witnessed/signed by: William Fell, Andrew Chestnut, Andrew S. Chesnut, Rosanna McCord, O.H.Perry McCord, Robert McCord

NOTE: According to Doris Mueller this will was contested and settled in favor of the plaintive - 1840.

NOTE: See the 4th term of the will. The children who are not mentioned elsewhere in the will are name here. Are they in age order? Joseph through Rebecca are definitely in order. We know John, James, and William are the three oldest - uncertain of William & James' order. But could Jane be older than Joseph?? From the censuses, I don't think so. But those old censuses aren't real reliable.

Another thing to consider. Could William and James be twins? If William's tombstone is correct, he died January 12, 1869, at 81 years, 2 months of age. This would mean his birth date was between October 13th and November 12th, 1787. We also show James as having been born in October of 1787. I'm uncertain as to exactly where that date came from. Censuses and his pension records have a variety of dates - from 1786 to 1790. Has anyone ever found James burial place/cemetery records?? RACHEL: The reason the name English was chosen over McGrethan is 5 of 7 children give that as their mother's maiden name in various records - such as censuses.

MacBrethan probably originated from MacBrittan - son of the man from Britain. In Gaelic MacBrittan could be pronounce Mag'rittan. The double 't' is pronounced with a soft sound, 'th', and the c has become a g as Macrae to Magraw. Howard McCord has researched several English, Scottish, and Irish surname books and has found no MacBrethan or McBrethan. He states that the English people invaded Ireland starting in the early 1100's before some surnames had evolved. They sometimes adopted 'nation of origin' surnames - hence Scott, Ireland, English, etc. He believes MacBrittan = MacBrethan and that both mean "son of the Englishman" or just English. This certainly seems a good explanation for Rachel Ellen's maiden name to be recorded as both English and McBrethan! ROSANNA: From the Western Press, Mercer Co., PA - dated November 2, 1813: "Married on Tuesday last (Tuesday, October 25, 1813) by Titus Beckway esq., Mr. Robert McCord to Mrs. Rosanna Clark, both of Pymatuning Twp. May they spend their time in peace while they are here below and when death calls may they with grace be prepared to go." (Received from Dora Mueller)

WHERE I CAME UP WITH THIS! BIRTHDATE: He was born 1784-1790 according to the 1800 Mercer Co., PA, Census. I feel certain he was the oldest, thus born before James in 1787. This fits in with 1810 and 1830 Censuses.

MOVE TO OHIO: "History of Huron and Erie Counties, Ohio" p. 454: Lists William, James and John McCord as "early settlers" of Groton Groton Township (then Wheatsborough). Their names follow those who definitely came in 1809 and 1811. They were there by May, 1813, as they were part of a posse who tracked the Indians who captured/killed the Snows, Putnams and others. (p. 493) John Fleming (a possible relative of John's wife, Ann) and James McCord are on the 1815 tax role for Huron County.

In 1984, Jack Kearns, 4614 Edgewood Ave., Oakland, CA 94602 supplied us with a chronology of the Kearns family. In it he states his belief that the "Kearnses and McCords were traveling together." He states that both James and John McCord are on the 1816 Huron County tax role.

MARRIAGE: From Huron County, Ohio records.

MOVE TO INDIANA: Mr. Kearns states in the Kearns chronology, mentioned above, that there is a biography of James McCord in the History of the son of James and Hannah (Morris) McCord.) which states they (James & Hannah & family)

Warren Co., IN - p.199 (This James is lived in Huron Co., Ohio, and migrated to the White River in central Indiana in 1820 and moved to Warren County in 1824. Mr. Kearns says the 1820 Census shows John McCord living near Thomas Kearns in the White River area north of present day Indianapolis which was then Delaware Co., White River Parish. Mr. Kearns also found a history of Eagle Township in Boone County which mentions John and James as early settlers. John McCord is mentioned in the will of John Conner of Hamilton Co. in 1824. (Then Delaware Co. included sections of present day Marion, Hamilton and Boone Co.)

WARREN CO., IN: From Kearns chronology- James moved to Warren County in 1824. John was probably with him. John McCord and John S. Reid entered land in Warren County in 1825. Mr. Kearns tells us the Sept., 1828 grand jury included John McCord and he was a voter in the November, 1828, election.

From the History of Warren County - p. 12 - under Liberty Township, John and James are named as early settlers in 1828. Andrew, Peter, and David Fleming (likely relatives of Ann's) were in nearby Pike Township in 1827.

1830 CENSUS: WARREN Co., IN p. 184
John McCord age 40-50, b. 1780-1790; with wife age 30-40, b. 1790-1800; and female age 10-15; 2 males and a female age 5-10; and 3 males under 5.

SALE OF PROPERTY: We have a copy of the record of John and Ann McCord's sale of lot #1 in Independence, Warren County, Indiana, on May 27, 1837, recorded June 3, 1837. It looks like John signed for himself, Ann made an "x" and John then signed for her - nice handwriting. It was witnessed by John Cowgill and David Moffit, justice of the peace.

MOVE TO MISSOURI: Don C. McCord found John for us in Missouri and Arkansas. He quotes from "Old Time Memories and Hunting Scenes of West Sugar Loaf" by S.C. Turnbo, portion title "Forsyth in 1837 - 1848": "Mr. David McCord (John's son) who resides on the bank of the river in Boone Co., Ark., informs me that he came with his parents from Indiana to the mouth of Swan Creek in Sept., 1837." Forsyth is near the southern border of Missouri in Taney County.

MOVE TO ARKANSAS: A further quote from Turnbo's "Old Time Memories ...": p. 25 "Dave McCord of Protec, says that he crossed the river at Elbow Shoals in 1838." Don C. McCord says "In 1838 the family located on West Sugar Loaf in what is now Boone Co., Arkansas." This may be a quote from "Reminiscent History of Ozark Region" p. 344.

Reasons I Feel This Is OUR John McCord: (1) John and Ann sold their land in Indiana in 1837. (2) Son, David, states they came to Missouri from Indiana in 1837. (3) John's nephew,

Robert Allen McCord, and his wife's family, the Rhodes, went to Lead Hill, Arkansas, in 1839 (returning to Indiana about 1843). Lead Hill, on the northern edge of Arkansas, is very near the area John and/or his family would have been in. (4) The 1850 Marion County, Arkansas, Census shows Ann Campbell (John's wife remarried a John Campbell after his death) with 5 McCord children whose birthdates and sexes tie in very well with the 1830 Warren County Census statistics.

DEATH:

MANY QUESTIONS! Don C. McCord states that John died in 1838 in Boone Co., Arkansas, and references "Rem. History of Ozark Region" p. 344. I don't have a copy of this.

There are both a John and an Ann McCord buried in the Old Baptiste Cemetery, Fountain County, Indiana. We had thought these were the right ones. Death dates are John - Sept. 1, 1839, and Ann - Sept. 30, 1849. John's age is shown as 67 - Ann's isn't given. If true this would make John born in 1772 - too early! But if these aren't ours - who are they?? ANN: Ann may be related to Elijah Fleming mentioned in the "History of Erie County, Ohio" (1889) as being the first school teacher there in 1818. According to "Forsyth in 1837-1848" by S.C. Turnbo provided by Don C. McCord, Ann married John Campbell after John McCord's death. The 1860 Marion Co., Ark Census shows Ann Campbell age 60 living with David McCord age 35 and Ellen McCord (probably Eleanor, David's sister) age 41 in Sugar Loaf Twp., Dubuque, Ark.

Back in the cave is a stream of water and several yards below the mouth of the cave a large stream springs from the mountain side: I accompanied Mr. Campbell to the cave, and we used bees wax candles for a light, we crossed the stream before encountering the bears. Upon finding them, Campbell shot the old one, which floundered about until she fell in the stream of water. The carcass was left there for a few hours until we bound the cubs and dispatched them. The old bear had bled freely: we worked with the three for some time preparing them as best we could to carry home. Being quite thirsty we went to the mountain side to get a drink and when to our surprise it was a spring of blood.'

William McCord died and is buried in a rural cemetery 7.4 miles south of Jessup, Iowa. There is a tall stone monument with the inscription: William McCord died January 12, 1869, age 81 years, 2 months. No other stones evident. (From Jessup: 1 mile south, 1/2 mile west, 6 mi. south, west 1/4 mi. to cemetery).

From film of pensions for the War of 1812 - per Margery Graham: McCord, William W033,218 NC 22153; bounty land warrant 46958-80-55 (he got 80 acres in 1855) bounty land warrant 33802-80-55, (he got another 80 acres). Widow, Barbara McCord.

From the "History of Huron and Erie Counties, Ohio" (1879) - p.454:

"Among other early settlers may be named the following: Hiram Blackman, George Furgerson, Alexis Jackson, William, James, and John McCord, Thomas Morris, Israel Putnam, Samuel Spry, Nathaniel Cowan, Phineas Dunham, and others."

"An election was held at the house of William McCord June 2, 1834, and on that day the first officers of the township were elected, . . . ."

From the same history an account is given of an attack on the settlement in May, 1813, by sixteen Indians. The Indians took several people with them - four children were killed (two being scalped), a woman was killed. James and John McCord and others pursued the Indians, but were unsuccessful as the Indians had left by the Portage River in canoes. Eight captives were later handed over to the British Indian agent, "Ironsides", in Detroit.

Richard Young has a copy of the original Bounty Land Warrant for William McCord along with several letters verifying William's service in the War of 1812. He also has a copy of the award of a Service Pension of $8 per month to Barbara Jackson McCord along with her application for the pension. Barbara had signed the latter with her "x" and it was witnessed by her son, G.B. McCord along with H.D. Hartwell. Thomas Jackson testified that he was present at the marriage of Barbara and William, stating that Barbara was his sister.

In Barbara's claim for a Widow's Pension she describes William as being 6 ft 1 in. complexion light hair, dark - eyes blue - farmer by profession. She states that they married in 1816 in Huron Co., OH, by William Richie, JP, and lived in Erie, Huron & Sandusky Cos., OH, until 1864 when they moved to Black Hawk County, IA. At the time, 10/31/1878 she was living in Marshalltown, Marshall Co., IA.

NOTE: Henry Jackson McCord states in his Civil War journal: "Capt. Symms called on me. Married my cousin Hannah Ann Richie." Perhaps the justice of the peace who married William and Barbara - William Richie - was a relative.

NOTE: Don C. McCord references the WPA Blackhawk County Cemetery Records showing that William is buried in Spring Creek Cemetery, Spring Creek Twp., Blackhawk Co., IA. This may be the same cemetery shown above. BARBARA: She was a cousin to Andrew Jackson. She had a sister with the married name of Campbell who died leaving four young children. These children were adopted by William and Barbara. Barbara had a brother, Thomas, who stated in William's Bounty Land Application that he was present at their wedding and that he had a brother who served in the War of 1812 with William - same Reg't & Company. Thomas was living in Story Co., IA, at the time - 10/28/1878 - & was 72 years old.

A. CATHERINE MCCORD #190 b. 1816-1820, OHIO, NUMB. 2.1, m. 30-Oct-1839, in ERIE CO, OH,<sup>26</sup> LANCIFORD W. HASTINGS #204, b. 1819, NUMB. 2.1S, OCCUP. Lawyer. CATHERINE died BEF.1850(?), CHILDREN 2. Catherine's children, William and Barbara, were apparently raised by her parents - as they are included with them on the 1850 census & William only on the 1860 census. According to Melissa Rogers, Catherine is one of the four Campbell children adopted by William and Barbara. I find this doubtful, as the 1830 census shows William with only 3 girls and 2 boys. We know the 2 boys are Henry J. and Daniel. If they adopted 4 Campbell children, they would have all been adopted at once. Sylvia Campbell is named on the 1850 census as being born in 1831. The Campbell girls are probably some of the females on the 1840 census. Another clue that she is not a Campbell, is she named her children William and Barbara - probably after her parents. She is a McCord on her marriage certificate. Also, Barbara and William were married in 1816. Their first son (Henry Jackson) wasn't born until 1827. Did they really wait 11 years??? For these reasons I list these first three girls as McCords rather than Campbells.

We show Catherine's death date as before 1850 as she was not on the 1850 Census. But she could have been with her husband - where ever he was??

LANCIFORD: Lanciford's father may have been Dr. W. Hastings who is mentioned in "The History of Erie County, Ohio" as having had eight sons and resided in Groton, Ohio. Also in the "History of Huron and Erie Counties, Ohio" Ephraim Hastings voted in the first Groton township election in 1834; Dr. George Hastings located in the township and commenced practice as early as 1810 - He died in October, 1864; A.J. Hastings was a postmaster for Groton Township in 1879. William H. Hastings is listed with Henry J. McCord as serving in the 111th Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry, Company G. E.D. (Dan) Hastings went with Henry J. on his trip to California. They worked on Lyman Hastings' house. In 1846 Henry J. made cider with W.H. Hastings.

Lanciford Hastings is my "mystery man". Is he or is he not the Lansford Warren Hastings who wrote "The Emigrants Guide to Oregon and California" and gave the Donner Party a "bum steer"??. In case you're not up on California history, the Donner Party came to California in 1846/47 from Illinois. They came to California rather than Oregon primarily due to Hastings' book. They were to meet Hastings at Fort Bridger so he could guide them through his new, shorter "Hastings Cut-Off". When they got there late, he had gone on ahead with others who were on time. He left them a map and note in which he told them to follow his trail. This trail proved to be nearly impassable. They were slowed down and winter came early in the Sierra Nevada mountains. They, supposedly, had to resort to cannibalism in order that some could survive. Some of them did eventually make it to California and many books have been written about them.

Following is a run-down of the things I have learned about Lansford Warren Hastings and how they relate to our Lanciford Hastings.

FACT: Lansford was born in 1819.

Our L.H. was married to Catherine McCord who we feel - from census information - was born about 1820. FACT: Lansford was an attorney from Ohio.

Our L.H. married Catherine (William's daughter, who lived in Ohio) in Erie County, Ohio. FACT: Lansford began his travels in 1842 going to Oregon first.

Our L.H. married in 1839, had a son (William) in 1839 or 1840, and no other children until Barbara E. in 1847 (more about this later). FACT: Lansford laid out the new town of Sutterville - 2 miles south of Sacramento - in 1844.

In his "around the horn" journal, Henry Jackson McCord - L.H.'s brother-in-law - traveled with Dan Hastings and tells of working on an addition to Lyman Hastings' house in Sutterville in 1850. While there he says he "Saw L.W.H. Passed no word with him". Two days later he states, "Saw and talked very little with Lance. He looks much older than I had anticipated." If L.W.H. IS his brother-in-law perhaps the family was miffed at him for taking off and leaving his two children who appear by name in the 1850 census as living with their grandfather, William McCord. (Lyman Hastings is NOT L.W.H. as he was off at the gold fields at this time. FACT: On their marriage license Lanciford W. Hastings m. Catherine McCord in Erie County, Ohio, Oct. 30, 1839. Even though the first name is spelled differently, the W. is further confirmation of him being the same person.

PROBLEM: I have found written that Lansford's home town was Mt. Vernon,

Knox Co., Ohio. Mt. Vernon is about 75-100 miles south of Erie County where L.H. married Catherine. I just reread the "History of Erie County" and this may prove to be a link rather than a problem if L.H. is related to Dr. W. Hastings - as I feel he is.

The following is from that history:

"The first physician was Dr. W. Hastings who commenced practicing in the early part of 1810. After the War of 1812 he moved to KNOX county, Ohio, where he was elected member of the Legislature. He returned to Groton with his family in 1815. His wife died in 1848, and their descendants still reside in the country. They had eight children, all sons. Ephraim removed to Sandusky county in 1825, where his son, W.G. Hastings, was for many years engaged in business in Parkertown, but now resides in Sandusky city. The rest of the family are scattered all over - some in CALIFORNIA, and one when last heard from was in Australia. The doctor continued to practice until his death in 1864, at the ripe age of eighty-nine years. He practiced forty years in the family of Seth Harrington."

Perhaps L.H. lived in Knox County at some point because relatives were there?? Also in the forward to "Emigrants Guide" I found that Lansford was living in Milan, Ohio - 60 miles north of Mt. Vernon - in 1841/42.

PROBLEM: According to the 1850 census L.H. & Catherine's daughter, Barbara E. Hastings was living with William McCord and was born in 1847. She is not shown in the 1860 census but her older brother is still with them - no Catherine or L.H. Now, if L.H. was traveling, how did he have a daughter in 1847?

I found that Lansford returned to Ohio in 1844 to raise money in order to publish his book. He started back to California in August, 1845. He was "out West" from then on according to the books I read. Possibly the census is wrong. Barbara could have been born in 1846 if L.H. left a pregnant wife behind. No wonder Henry J. "passed no word with him"!!

PROBLEM: Lansford married Charlotte Catherine Toler in July, 1848. Catherine had probably died after having Barbara and before the 1850 census so this isn't that much of a problem.

Since I'm quite certain Lansford & Lanciford are one and the same I'll give a little more history on him.

Hastings went to Oregon in spring, 1842. It was the first large (about 160 people) party to go. He became captain of the train a few days after leaving. In Oregon he was employed by Dr. McLoughlin as his attorney. In May, 1843, Hastings and 53 others began the trek to California. He and Captain Sutter laid out the town of Sutterville and Hastings worked on his book which encouraged people to come to California. Summer, 1844, Hastings returned East by the Mexico route. In Ohio he joined a Methodist minister, McDonald, in a temperance lecture tour to get funds for his book. It was published in 1845.

Hastings started back to California leading a train in August, 1845. Hastings did his best to convince people to come to California. He even met parties on the trail and deterred them from Oregon. The rule of Mexico was ending and Hastings joined the California Volunteers under Fremont. He was made Captain of Company F. After the war, Hastings went back to Fort Sutter and his work as an attorney.

He was elected and served as a delegate to the State Convention at Monterey, September and October of 1849. He was appointed judge in the northern district. He and his wife moved to Yuma, AZ, in 1850, but came back to California in 1862 where his wife died soon after. He put his young daughter in a convent at Benecia (the "turkey"), and went off to Mexico.

In 1863 he had an ambitious plan for the seizure of Arizona by the U.S. It was unsuccessful. After the war, he spent 6 months in Brazil in 1867 promoting a scheme to locate a colony of Confederates and two parties of colonists were taken over. He published his "Emigrants' Guide to Brazil" shortly afterward. He died after 1870 while on the voyage to Brazil with the second shipload of colonists. Some of the references I used for this were:

In 1856 he returned to OH and in 1862 enlisted as a Capt in the 111th OH Vol Inf at Sandusky. #### DEATH OF H.J. McCORD

The death of Henry Jackson McCord occurred Sunday evening at about 4:30, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mary Irwin, R.R.2. Mr. McCord was born at Sandusky, Ohio, January 12, 1827, thus being past his 90th birthday, when his life on this earth came to an end. He was one of the Forty-Niners, reaching California after a nine months voyage. He remained on the western coast three years and then returned home. He enlisted in the Civil War as Captain of Co. G, 111th Ohio Volunteers, August 15, 1862, and served with the same company until mustered out, June 17, 1865. Having acted as commander of the regiment for quite awhile before the close when mustered out, he was commissioned as a Major. After the war he left Ohio and went to Iowa to live and on December 8, 1869, was married to Rachel Howell, and to them was born six children. In 1876 they came to Kansas and settled on a farm about 11 miles northwest of this city. Mrs. McCord died June 20, 1905, and soon after that Mr. McCord left the old homestead and came into town to be with his children. Mr. McCord was a man that tried to be honest with all men and ever thoughtful in his family for the little comforts of home, wife and children. He leaves to mourn his death two daughters, Mrs. Mary A. Irwin and Mrs. B. Roper; three sons, William B., George L., and Hal H., all of Manhattan. One of the sons, Fred V., was accidentally drowned in 1892, while swimming in the Blue River above Rocky Ford dam. The funeral will be at 1:30 Tuesday at the home of the daughter, Mrs. Irwin, Rural Route 2, on the Wildcat, just above Rock Island cut. The boys of the family will be pallbearers. RACHEL: Had Bright's disease (kidney infection). Hal was teaching at Highland Grade School and sat up when she was dying. Before she died she said, "Oh Fred, I see you. I'm coming" (Fred was her son who drowned in the Blue River.) The Republic - June 20, 1905

MRS. H. J. McCORD DEAD

Mrs. H.J. McCord died yesterday morning about 8 o'clock at her home in the Sedalia neighborhood four miles northeast of Keats. She had been ill for the past six months with heart trouble and dropsey.

Mrs. McCord was 54 years of age. Her husband and five children survive her. Her sons are, Will, who is the R.F.D. carrier on Route 2, George who lives at St. George, and Hal who is unmarried and lives at the old home place. The daughters are Mrs. Will Irwin and Mrs. B. Roper of Manhattan. A brother of the deceased, A. Howell, lives in this place. Another brother and two sisters reside in La Port, Iowa, and a third brother, John Howard, is in Mexico.

Rachel E. Howell was born in Indiana near Salem in 1850. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Howell, moved to Iowa where she remained until after her marriage to H.J. McCord, when they moved to Kansas and occupied the farm where they have since lived.

Mrs. McCord was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was universally respected and beloved.

Rachel's parents were Stephen Howell and Mary Cox. The "History of Black Hawk Co., IA" (1915) states "It is said that Stephen Howell, of Indiana, was the first white man to settle in the (Fox) township, locating in the southeastern part. His son, James, was the first white child born in the township...The first breaking...was done by Henry Gray, Stephen Howell and Peter Cox who used their three yokes of oxen to do the work. The first house was built by Stephen Howell in '49."

According to Richard Young, Rachel was her parents third daughter and a midwife in the Sedalia community near Manhattan, KS. She attended the birth of Riley County historian, Winifred Slagg.

Will grew up in the Sedalia community and made life-long friends there. As a young man he farmed, worked on a surveying party, and worked for the RR at McCook NE and Iola.

He was working in Iola when war was declared with Spain in 1898. He enlisted in the 20th KS Vol Inf and was sent to the Philippines. Many soldiers died of disease and at one time he was so near death he wrote a note asking that his affairs be settled and his family told "what has become of me". At Home

November 18, 1898 My Dear Boy Will -

I promised Mama this morning that I would write to you today, so here goes. 7 P.M., a little late in the day, but will do the best I can. You know I get fearful sleepy about this time in the evening. Fred Howe, Hattie and Nanny came here from Sedalia for supper. Nip Williams, George, Carrie and Hal have gone to the Endeaver with them so Mama and I are left alone.

Capt. Howe and his wife came along two weeks ago yesterday in their light wagon and took us in for a trip over to Iola. We had fine weather the whole trip there and back and while we were there. Only spent two days with Will and Mayme as we felt that we must be home to vote - took us four days to go and four and a half to return - got to our place about noon. I hitched the mules to the buggy and drove over to Keats and voted. We carried by 22 majority. The county ticket was elected by from 350 to 669 majority. Coldestrad's majority in the Dist, is considerably over 2400. We have elected the whole state ticket from governor down. The whole delegation to congress except one and it is said that the vote of the Soldier boys may change that. Roosevelt the Leader of "The Rough Riders" is elected governor of New York State, McKinley has been handsomely sustained. Both branches of Congress will be in perfect accord with the Pres. Hip! Hurrah! Glory enough for one day!!

I saw Sergeant Gray of your company while we were in Iola. He spoke very favorably of you. Said you would get along all right. That you was temperate in all things and knew how to take care of yourself. We enjoyed our visit very much - would like to have stayed longer but couldn't think of losing our votes.

Mama will give you all the news. I am tired and sleepy so good night.

Yours,
H.J. McCord

Word was received this week that Will B. McCord of the Twentieth Kansas was dead. At the time the regiment sailed for home he was sick in the hospital and was left behind. The profoundest sympathy of the community will be extended his parents in their affliction.

WILL MCCORD NOT DEAD

An item published in the Nationalist last week to the effect that Will B. McCord had died at Manila was a mistake. So far as anyone knows he is alive and coming home on the ship with the rest of the regiment. Letters from him written six days before the sailing of the transport and received last week, stated he had been in the hospital but was now out, feeling better and would sail with his companions.

While at Topeka last week the writer was informed that he was dead, the report emanating from Riley, to the effect that his parents had received a telegram giving them the sad news. On the strength of this apparently reliable report the local was made. On Friday afternoon a messenger from Mr. McCord's informed that this was a mistake and calling up the adjutant general's office he stated he had no such report except the one coming from Riley. By some strange mischance an error was made and for a brief season a wave of sorrow swept over the community. But so far as is now known Will McCord is well and coming home. And there is no happier people on earth than his family, and friends all over the county.

WILL MCCORD

William Bogart McCord was born September 21, 1871, in Black Hawk County, Iowa; he attended district school in Fox township, Dist. No. 1, for two years. At the age of seven he came with his parents to this county where he lived most of the time ever since. He was educated in the district school except one year at K.S.A.C. When he left college, it was to accept a position in the machine shops at McCook, Nebraska, where he worked six months and then came home and went to work on the farm.

He joined the K.N.G. in the second year of its organization and it was there that he received his military training. He was always very enthusiastic in anything pertaining to military display and was member of Co. I, K.N.G., up to time of the enlistment in the Twentieth Kansas.

He went to Iola, Allen County, in January, 1898, where he obtained work with the Iola Manufacturing Co. He did not enlist when the first call was made but when Capt. Elliot went to Iola and asked for twenty-five recruits to fill up Co. E., 20th Kansas to its war footing he thought the time had come for him to enlist. On June 13, his name was enrolled, he was sworn in on the 14th and left for San Francisco on the 16th. There he was transferred to Co. I, commanded by Capt. Flanders, and remained in that company up to the muster-out.

He was on the firing line from February 4th up to the taking of San Fernando in June. While in quarters at San Fernando he was taken sick and sent to the First Reserve Hospital in Manila where he was obliged to stay most of the time from then to the time when the regiment was ordered home. He commenced to improve as soon as he got on the ocean and is now well and at his home near Riley.

Last Saturday evening at 7 o'clock at the home of Ed Simmons on Blue Bottom, Miss Ellen Haynes was united in marriage to William B. McCord by Rev. Campbell. The ceremony was witnessed only by the relatives and most intimate friends. Mr. and Mrs. McCord are both well known and highly respected young people. They are at home to their friends in the House property, corner of Third and Humboldt Streets. ELLEN: Ellen was the daughter of Landon Carter Haynes and Amelia Medina Kearns. Their parents were George G. and Margaret Eleanor (Worsham) Haynes; and John J. and Susan Elizabeth (Davis) Kearns. George Haynes parents were David Haynes and Rhoda Ann Taylor. Margaret Worsham's parents were J.W. Worsham and Elizabeth Powell. John J. Kearns was the son of Sarah Jackson and Thomas Kearns. He was born 1/1/1827 and is said to be the first white child born in Warren Co., IN. The Kearns and McCords seem to have traveled together. Amelia Medina Kearns was probably named for John J.'s sister Medina. We have a history of the Kearns family. Susan Davis' parents were Andrew Davis and Zilla Grant.

A SAD DROWNING

"Late Tuesday evening the startling news of the drowning of Fred McCord, the sixteen (age wrong) year old son of Henry McCord of Sedalia, reached Manhattan. It seems that he had taken a team and gone to the south of Pfeil Creek in the Blue River, with companions, for a swim. Fred was not an expert swimmer, and getting some distance from shore he went beyond his depth and soon went down. One of his companions went immediately to his rescue and succeeded in getting him part way to the shore, but gave out. Fred said, "I'm gone, save yourself." Neighbors were aroused and a party formed and a search made in the river until a late hour that night, but with no success. Wednesday morning the search was renewed and about 8 o'clock the body was found about ten feet from where it was last seen. The deceased was buried Wednesday afternoon in our cemetery."

FATHER SAVES SON When Stove Exploded William Irwin Forgot About Himself
WRAPPED LAD IN BLANKET

Irwin was severely burned about the arms and hands - tried to pour gasoline on generator.

When William Irwin, living near the Rock Island cut, a short distance south west of Manhattan, wrapped his 7-year-old son up in a blanket early this morning to keep the lad from being burned to death, he forgot about himself and was seriously burned. The boy escaped with a few slight burns and owes his life to his father.

The trouble came when Mr. Irwin started to light the gasoline stove. The gasoline failed to generate, so Irwin attempted to start it by the "cup routine", that is, he filled a cup full of gasoline and there was an explosion the instant he applied the match. Burning oil was thrown all over Irwin and his son, who was standing near watching the proceedings.

Irwin grabbed a blanket and wrapped it around the lad and the flames were quickly smothered, but while he was doing it Irwin was severely burned about the arms and hands. The physician who was called says Irwin's right and left arm were burned the most. The physician also says that the boy would have been burned to death had it not been for the prompt work on the part of the father.

Irwin is an employee of the Correll Manufacturing Company.

----- William was the son of Alexander Irwin and Alice Rutledge.

A very pretty wedding of interest to many people in this vicinity took place Thursday evening, October 6, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Irwin when their daughter, Agnes McCord, was united in marriage to William Hobart Burch of Fowler, Kansas. Immediately preceding the ceremony Miss Ruth McCord and Miss Irene McCord sang Tosti's "While I Have You". Miss Pauline Roper played Mendelsson's wedding march as the bridal party entered. Alice Mary and Patricia Irwin, little sisters of the bride, as flower girls led the procession and were followed by Fred Irwin, groomsman, and Rachel Roper, bridesmaid. Mrs. Margaret Jenkins Burch as maid of honor was followed by the bride and groom, and while the strains of "Annie Laurie" were softly played the ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. George H. Parkinson, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Manhattan of which the bride has been a member since childhood. After congratulations and plenteous showers of rice, advice and good wishes, refreshments were served and Mr. and Mrs. Burch departed by motor for their new home in Fowler. The bride wore a dainty gown of white organdie trimmed with tucked medallions and picot ribbon. She carried a bouquet of white roses, while the corsage bouquets of the matron of honor and bridesmaid were of pink roses and the flower girls carried snapdragons and wild achallae. The rooms were effectively decorated with autumn vines and wild achallae, and with bowls of garden flowers. Mrs. Burch has grown to womanhood in Manhattan. She graduated from K.S.A.C. in 1916 and has since been an instructor in the high schools of Fowler and Hartford, Kan. Mr. Burch served overseas in the U.S. Medical Corps and is now engaged in farming. Out of town guests were the grooms parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burch of Fowler, and his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burch of Bucklin.

ROPER - MCCORD

The marriage of William B. Roper and Miss Carrie McCord occurred Thanksgiving day at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H.J. McCord of Sedalia. The ceremony which was performed by Rev. J.T. Copley was witnessed by only the relatives. The bride is widely and favorably known in this vicinity. The groom who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Roper of Keats, is a young man of excellent character. He is employed in P.C. Hostrop's barber shop. Mr. and Mrs. Roper will live at the home of A.H. McCutchan on Poyntz Avenue. They have many friends who wish them an abundance of happiness.

The following was written by Richard Young:

"Born 4-4-1882 on a farm in Riley County, KS, where she spent her childhood. (This was near the time and place of Laura Ingall Wilder's 'Little House On The Prairie'.) A remarkable woman with boundless energy and diverse interests.... Entertained her grandchildren with stories, willow whistles, turtle pancakes, and many other creatures of her imagination. A nature lover, she enjoyed the outdoors (prairies, beaches, mountains) and was informed and inquisitive about all species of plants and animals. Her poems, historical notes, family stories, and opinions on current affairs and other subjects (she DID have opinions!) appeared in the column, "Gram Sez", in the Manhattan Mercury-Chronicle in 1940-41. Her family was her greatest love and interest. During World War II, moved to Southern California where her children Polly, Rick, Pep, Maxine, Kay and Sylvia were living. WILLIAM: SON OF D.R. #### CELLAR WALL CAVED IN ON HIM

B. Roper, a barber employed at the Manhattan barbershop, is thanking his wife today for his life. Last night she rescued him from their cellar after a wall had caved in upon him. In two minutes time after he escaped from his perilous position the cellar was full of water.

Roper lives on Vattier street and like nearly every other resident on that street, he had trouble last night with water in his cellar. When the water was about two feet deep in his cellar, Roper decided he had better go down and take out some of the fruit or place it higher at least.

He hadn't been there more than a few minutes when a wall, which had been loosened by the water, caved in upon him. He was about half buried but luckily he was able to keep his head up out of the water. He struggled and floundered to free himself but failing, he called to wife for help.

As the cellar was filling fast with water the only help which Mrs. Roper had time to secure was herself and she fell desperately to work digging away at the dirt and rocks which pinned her husband down. Within two minutes from the time that Roper was free and out of the cellar, it was full of water.

Mr. Roper has not been able to get down town today. He is suffering from a wrenched knee and some other bruises. But they are consolations when he thinks about the fate which he barely escaped.

WORREL - MCCORD

The marriage of Miss Oma Worrel and Mr. Hal McCord took place Saturday evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Carrie Worrel, on Leavenworth Street. Just as the bells were tolling the old year out and the new year in, Miss Cecilia Grooms softly played "The Flower Song" and the young couple took their places in front of the bay window, where the marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. W.T. McLain, witnessed only by a company of relatives. The bride wore a beautiful pale blue silk messaline dress and carried white roses.

Following congratulations and best wishes, a two-course lunch was served in the dining room by Miss Grace Worrel and Miss Cecilia Grooms. The table decorations were in the pretty colors blue and white, while carnations were the flowers used and the place cards were decorated with a dainty spray of sweet alyssum tied with a blue ribbon. Many beautiful presents were received.

The bride is a very attractive and charming young lady, well known in Manhattan where she has lived for the past eleven years. McCord has been for three years employed in W.E. Elliot's clothing store and is a young man of excellent qualities, and is liked and admired by all who know him. Mr. and Mrs. McCord have gone to housekeeping at 601 Thurston, OMA: 1st cousin of Ollie Worrel who married George Lewis McCord - Hal's brother. Daughter of Levi Worrell and Carolyn Viola "Carrie" Hull.

"Killed In Runaway" "Saturday last Mr. D.H. McCord was coming in from the race track west of town with a young horse he was training when near the crossing of the C.K.& W. R.R. track the horse he was driving to a trotting sulkey took fright at an approaching train and became unmanageable. It started on the run and just before crossing the track ahead of the approaching engine, Mr. McCord was thrown against a post and sustained injuries from which he died Sunday morning. A number of his ribs were broken and driven into his lungs. Deceased was well known and respected by all. He was about 60 years of age, and for a number of years he has been engaged in training and handling trotting horses, being considered one of the best horsemen in the west. He had no relatives here having buried his wife in this city some years ago. One son, we believe, lives in Iowa, whose wife is here to look after the funeral and to straighten up the affairs of the deceased. The funeral occurred Monday, the 27th, at 3:30 p.m. from the Presbyterian church, Rev. Hill officiating.

Thus we are called upon again to record the sudden taking away of a good citizen. Truly we know not when the great destroyer will call upon us."

The following appeared in the "Great Bend Register" March 30, 1893:

"D.H. McCord, well known by our people, died last Sunday morning at about 2 o'clock. His death was the result of a runaway, at the crossing of the C.K. & W., just on the west of the city limits. Mr. McCord started out from the stables of D.N. Heizer driving a high-spirited horse on Friday morning and drove along the road for some distance. He did not appear to know that the train was coming. The family living near the crossing saw the danger of Mr. McCord and a little girl endeavored to attract his attention to prevent his attempting to cross the track in front of the train. She failed to make him hear her. His horse appeared to be unmanageable and he succeeded in crossing safely. The cart wheel struck a post about 100 feet from the track and threw Mr. McCord out against a board that served as a brace to the post with sufficient force to break the board. It broke several ribs on the right side of his body and injured him internally. The train stopped and the men assisted in carrying him into the house near by. He afterward rallied and gained consciousness and lived until the time named. Nothing could be done to relieve him. He said that he did not see the train nor hear the little girl who endeavored to warn him of danger. The body was brought in Sunday morning to the undertakers, Schermerhorn and Harper. His son in Osage, Iowa, was telephoned immediately after the accident but will not come. His daughter-in-law came in on Sunday evening. She had not learned of his death until her arrival. The funeral was held at the Presbyterian church at 3:30 p.m. on Monday and he was buried by the side of his wife.

Mr. McCord was a genial, social gentleman and to our knowledge had no enemies. He was a devoted 'horse' man and had financial reverses during the past few years that cost him all the property that he had accumulated during his lifetime. His wife died in this city about four years ago."

It's said he had brought close to 200 horses to the fair!

The following article was furnished by Howard McCord:

WILLIAM P. MCCORD

This highly respected citizen of Hanford, Kings County, Cal., has during his long and busy career won distinction in many ways. He was born in Ohio February 6, 1831, and there received a limited education and practical instruction in different kinds of useful work. In 1852, when he was twenty-one years old, he came to California by way of New York and the Isthmus of Panama, going from New York to Panama on the steamer Brother Jonathan, crossing the isthmus on foot and coming to San Francisco on the steamer Winfield Scott. He stopped on the Island of Toboga six weeks waiting for a steamer and retains a fond remembrance of the place and people. From San Francisco he went to Sacramento and thence to Ringold. After mining three months he located at Suisun, Solano County, with his brother, with the intention of going into the mercantile business. Going down to put some hay on island, he learned that John Owens had already erected a store there, and he and his brother-in-law engaged in the butcher business, opening the first meat shop in Suisun, and traded there until 1856, when he went back east and brought his family out to California. Upon his return he engaged in teaming with his own teams, carrying supplies to Virginia City, Hangtown (now Placerville), and other mining centers and selling goods at the stores in all the camps round about. Thus he was employed three years, then for four years he ran a meat market in Vacaville. Disposing of that he returned east and farmed in Ohio and after four years went to Denver, Colo. From there he came on to Los Angeles, Cal., and soon engaged in buying cattle, which he drove to Bakersfield. He located in Bakersfield in 1872 and was charter member of the first lodge of Masons organized there and is now the only survivor of the original fourteen members. He established the McCord ranch, on the north side, a mile and a half from Bakersfield, constructed an irrigation ditch and for seven years furnished water free to everyone in the vicinity. Then, selling most of his stock, he located on government land, put in alfalfa, built levees, extended the ditch, sold it and afterward managed it two years, under the direction of W.B. Carr, making during that time $15 a day over and above the support of his family. From there he came to Tulare County and in 1886-87 bought land at the mouth of Cross Creek, twelve miles south of Hanford. One section, which he bought of O.E. Miller, at $2.75 an acre, is still owned in his family and is now worth over $150 an acre. And another section, which he bought of Bird & Smith and which is now valuable, cost him $7.50 an acre. He bought in all about two thousand acres. He and his sons engaged in stockraising and he and his brother built a levee and reclaimed thousands of acres of land from the Cross Creek overflow for settlers in that vicinity. Mr. McCord farmed there and raised horses and stock on a large scale, putting in more than one thousand acres of alfalfa on his own land, and maintained his home in Hanford while operating there. The family now owns eight hundred acres of that property.

In 1874 Mr. McCord and his son Dallas opened a butcher shop at Bakersfield. The latter conducted it many years and at the age of twenty-nine was elected sheriff of Kern County, and was the youngest sheriff in the state at that time, 1887. After filling the office one term he joined his father on the ranch. The latter retired from farming in 1908 and sold all his remaining land. He made a specialty of selling Arizona horses in San Francisco and attained prominence as an auctioneer at Bakersfield and San Francisco. In his younger years he was an athlete and won honors in Vacaville and Suisun and later at Bakersfield and was first president of the Bakersfield Athletic Club. For a long period he was renowned as a boxer, and when he was sixty-five years old he won in a wrestling match with an opponent of twenty-eight. He drove his own teams through Tulare County from Tipton to Bakersfield before the advent of the railroad and he and George McCord and Bill Woswick interested Claus Spreckles to construct the Santa Fe railroad through this section. Spreckles was later president of the Valley road, which was eventually absorbed by the Santa Fe system. Mr. McCord early became expert in the handling of horses and was champion of all horse trainers round San Francisco and Bakersfield for some years.

In February, 1850, Mr. McCord married Lois Sophia Crippen, a native of Ohio, and they had five children, two of whom are living. Alice, deceased, was the wife of James McCaffery, of Hanford; Dallas, who was successful in business with his father, died in 1891; Douglas lives in San Francisco; Burnside is a citizen of San Jose; Margery died at the age of three years. The mother of these children passed away at Hanford in April, 1911, and was buried by the order of Eastern Star. Mr. McCord has long been widely known as a Mason.

When county division was talked of he was a strong advocate and supporter of the movement, and for every other upbuilding agency of the state and county. He has never aspired to any office, though solicited to become a candidate many times, and once was forced to accept the office of justice of the peace at Bakersfield, winning over his opponent five to one in a Democratic stronghold.

The following note was written by William P. McCord to his niece, Carrie Melissa McCord. "Hanford March 7th/02 Carrie

My Dear Niece. We read your poetry with great pleasure and amusement and shall attempt to answer by telling some facts about this county that I think will interest you. First I will name the McCords that are here because I was here G.B. & Clara, Frank, Don & Vera, Dug and Linda, Charley and Eva, Burnside & Kitty & Stelley, Jim & Sarah, Bessie, Saidey, Hope, Clara, Moray, George, Francis, Paline, Ruth, Terry, Johnathan & Anney, Robert and Salley, Emeline, Carie, Lille, Jane & Emma.

Well if I was to tell you the history of all this tribe of McCords how they graduated what they are doing let it suffice they are all intelligent great people good natured jolly set. Some good players and ?, but there is but one Vera.

I am called Pa, Grampa, Great Grand Pa but mostly Uncle Bill, Sophia and I live alone at present in a three roomed house we had a better house but wanted still better so we had just sold 500 acres of alfalfa. So we traded our home for more land and sowed some more alfalfa. I spend one half of my time on the farm with Dallas' children and their mother but will quit soon and go home and rest. W.P. McCord"

From newspaper column titled "A Second Look" by Doris Robertson Polley - 3/18/90:

"Mother's great grandfather was William P. McCord. He was born in Ohio and in 1852 at the age of 21 he headed for California. The trip was by way of New York on the steamer Brother Jonathan, crossing the Isthmus of Panama on foot where he completed the journey to San Francisco on the steamer Winfield Scott. Enroute, he stopped on the Island of Toboga for six weeks while waiting for the Winfield Scott. He loved the island and its people and remembered them fondly for the rest of his life. I've wondered - Do we have any relative there?

From San Francisco he pushed on to Ringgold, was a gold miner for three months until he wisely decided that the 'real money' was in supplying the miners with food and necessities. For several years he ran his own teams of horses, pulling wagons loaded with supplies for the people in Virginia City, Hangtown (now Placerville), and other mining centers and selling goods at the stores in all the mining camps in the area.

In 1856, Great-Great-Grandfather went back to Ohio to get his family. They joined a wagon train for the difficult trip. The train had an Army escort for protection. One of the soldiers was James McCaffrey who fell madly in love with the McCords' daughter, Alice. And Alice and James were married.

The family established the McCord ranch near Bakersfield and I've often wondered what Great Great Grandmother McCord must have thought when she and her husband and their five young children had left the cool green rolling hills of Ohio for the dusty outpost in California.

McCord and his sons were engaged in a number of business activities - one of them buying and then driving cattle from Los Angeles to Bakersfield for sale. In 1874 he and son Dallas opened a butcher shop in Bakersfield. Dallas, at the age of 29, was elected Sheriff of Kern County, the youngest sheriff in the state at that time, 1887. William was elected justice of the peace.

In 1886-87, Great-Great-Grandfather McCord bought land 12 miles south of Hanford. They had about 2000 acres to farm. He and his sons engaged in stock raising and they built a levee that reclaimed thousands of acres of land from the Cross Creek overflow for settlers in that vicinity. They farmed there and raised horses and stock on a large scale, putting in more than one thousand acres of alfalfa on McCord land.

Alice McCord was settled in a comfortable home in Hanford with the family."

The parents of Lois Sophia Crippen were Charles Burnham Crippen and Lavina Vandercook. Charles was the son of Stephen Crippen, the son of Noah Crippen, the son of Samuel Crippen, the son of Jabez Crippen, who married Thankful Fuller - a descendant of the Fullers who came on the Mayflower. She is No. 14552 in the files of the Society of Mayflower Descendants.

Sophia's birthdate is in question - it may be October, 1835, or 12/23/1836.

Pretty mellow for all the accounts one usually hears." Above account per Howard McCord JAMES: Following taken from a 3/18/90 column by Doris Robertson Polley titled "A Second Look":

In 1886, Great-Great-Grandfather McCord went back to Ohio to get his family. They joined a wagon train for the difficult trip. The train had an Army escort for protection. "Meanwhile the handsome ex-soldier and his bride had two children. Willie and Lois Sophia, who grew up to marry Charles Whitcomb Fuller.

For the McCaffreys, the story doesn't have such a happy ending. In those days, elections were very serious and sometimes bloody. As an election official, James McCaffrey was shot in an argument on election day at Dallas school. It seems that he challenged a voter on his registration and the angry man pulled a gun and shot McCaffrey and killed him.

The killer and his grown sons escaped but were tracked down and captured by a very determined group of lawmen, including one of the McCord sons who was a deputy sheriff in Marin county. A week after his father was killed fourteen year old Willie was thrown from a horse and fatally injured."

A conversation with her usually resulted in simply listening to what she had to say. Nothing more was required than an occasional comment like, 'Oh, really?' or an incredulous 'I didn't know that!'". grew older and spent more time with her as an adult, I discovered that with a little prodding she would come up with some truly fascinating stories." (See William P. McCord & J. McCaffrey

PAULINE REYNOLDS, CENTENARIAN

Centenarian Pauline Reynolds of Los Osos died Saturday, Nov. 30, 1991, at a San Luis Obispo care center. She was 102.

At her request, cremation was followed by a burial at sea.

Mrs. Reynolds was born April 3, 1889, in Hanford to a farming family.

In a 1989 interview at her 100th birthday celebration, Reynolds said that she came from a "poor family that memorized poetry and read for entertainment." They didn't own a radio.

She began elementary school at the Dallas schoolhouse in Hanford, which was built by her father as well as named after him, and graduated from Hanford High School. She attended San Jose State University.

In Hanford she met her late husband, Vern Reynolds, who was an oilman as well as a newspaperman. He was nominated by the Socialist Labor Party to run for president in 1932. He died in 1959.

After her husband's death, she went to live with her daughter and son-in-law, Vivian and Sommers Smith in Aumsville, Ore. After Sommers suffered a heart attack four years ago, Pauline moved to Los Osos to be with her granddaughter and grandson-in-law, Shirley and Ted Fisher.

In addition to her daughter and son-in-law, Vivian and Sommers, and her granddaughter, Shirley and her husband Ted. Mrs. Reynolds is survived by a son and daughter-in-law, Roy and Alice Reynolds of Sarasota, Fla.; seven grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren; 12 great-great-grandchildren; and numerous cousins, nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by two sons, Bill Reynolds, and Mack Reynolds, fiction writer.

Contributions may be made to the Socialist Labor Party, P.O. Box 50414, Palo Alto, CA 94303, or to a favorite charity.

From "Mack Reynolds" - Starmont Reader's Guide - by Curtis C. Smith

"Roy Reynolds confirms his brother's broad interests and the important influence not only of his father but his mother, Pauline Reynolds, who had been an English major at Santa Clara College studying to be a teacher when she met Verne, instilled in the family the love of reading."

From a letter by Shirley Fisher - Pauline's granddaughter - which included a map giving locations of various spots of interest regarding the William Peoples McCord ranch near Hanford, CA: (Letter dated November 28, 1990)

"The 'Shanty Irish' were people that Gram sneaked over to see. She was told to 'Stay away from those damned shanty Irish!'. But they grew some mighty sweet watermelon, Gram said, and she always went over there when the watermelons were ripe."

"Gram doesn't remember anything, any more. Except how the horses reared up the first time they caught sight of automobiles and nearly died of fright. She tells that story everytime I see her." VERNE: From "Mack Reynolds" - Starmont Reader's Guide - by Curtis Smith:

"Reynolds came honestly both by his science fiction and his radicalism. His father's first name was Verne, after Jules Verne, and Reynolds grew up with science fiction -- and also politics... Verne was active in a Marxist organization, the Socialist Labor Party, and Reynolds rarely had occasion to meet anyone who was not a 'Comrade'."

"Verne's family were early Indiana settlers; Verne's parents, who were missionaries for the Seventh Day Adventists, moved to Kansas where Verne was born in 1884, 'at a time when the plains states were still being homesteaded, and cattlemen were fighting sodbusters' (NP). At sixteen Verne left home, working as boarding-house cook, fireman on an oil tramp to Europe and insurance salesman before moving to California to work on the oil fields; he eventually became a steamfitter. After Verne and Pauline married, they worked for some time on her family's ranch. All of their children -- Roy (the oldest), Dallas McCord ("Mack", born November 12, 1917), Vivian, and William -- were born at Corcoran, California.

In 1918 Verne and Pauline brought their young family to Baltimore, where Verne found work in war construction. Coming home from work one day, Verne picked up a flier in a gutter near his house announcing a meeting of the Workers International Industrial Union (W.I.I.U.). This union was supported by the SLP as supposedly being 'based on the principles of the original IWW'. Soon Verne was a member not only of the W.I.I.U. but of the Baltimore section of the SLP. For this son of Seventh Day Adventist missionaries, the transition to socialist agitator must have seemed strange."

Smith

"In any case, SLP work was soon to introduce Reynolds to his second wife, Jeannette Wooley, in Cincinnati, March or April, 1947. Within a day or two they were engaged (Jeanette Reynolds interview). Jeannette had a radical and utopian background, having lived from eight to fourteen in the Llano Cooperative in Louisiana. Politics and a shared view of life were essential to the marriage, and they had an agreement that what Reynolds wrote must be consistent with 'their mutual beliefs' (Swain). They were married in September, 1947."

GEORGE died 31-Mar-1913, OAKLAND, CA, BUR Hanford Cemetery, Hanford, CA,<sup>60</sup> He served in the Civil War - First as a drummer boy in an Ohio regiment and later as a Captain. He was wounded and captured. He escaped from Andersonville and was again wounded when recaptured. When he was released he was placed on the "Sultana", a steam powered river boat. The boat's boiler failed & the ship exploded causing great loss of life. He was sheriff of Marshalltown, IA, in 1880; then moved to Hanford, CA, & was Tulare Co. Supervisor & State Assemblyman "Life of 'Fighting Sheriff' of County Was Filled With Thrills" Times-Republican, Marshalltown, Iowa:

"Naturally during the long life of a community that is seventy-five years old many sensational incidents have been recorded, but it is doubtful if ever there was one which caused more excitement, and more general interest among the people, than the shooting of Sheriff George B. McCord by "Jack" Reynolds, whom the officer was attempting to arrest in company with his pal, George Bedford, on a burglary charge.

It probably is a safe assertion that never in the history of this county was there a more popular sheriff than George McCord. Regardless of political affiliation, he commanded the respect of the public generally. As the victim of a murderous assault his popularity even was more pronounced, and, especially because he was wounded while in the performance of his duty.

Shooting at Ralls Home

It was forty-four years on the twenty-second of last July at 3:30 o'clock, on one of the hottest afternoons of the summer that Sheriff McCord came near receiving his death wound.

On the night before the B.A. Armstrong general store at Liscomb had been entered by thieves who stole a large quantity of merchandise. Because there had been a hard rain during the night Armstrong was able to track a buggy supposed to contain the burglars and loot thru the town of Albion and into this city. Here Armstrong notified the sheriff, who accompanied the merchant toward the east on a trail that supposedly led thru the town into what was then Linn township, but now is the extreme eastern edge of this city, to the home of William Ralls.

In a field on the Ralls farm the sheriff and Armstrong came upon a buggy and two men, one of whom was asleep. The other was eating a lunch, and apparently the two men had stopped for rest and refreshment.

McCord approached the men, informed them that he was the sheriff, told them his mission, and that he wanted to search their buggy. Under a lap robe in the buggy were found some canned goods which Armstrong identified as having been taken from his store. The sheriff then announced to the men that they were under arrest, and asked if they were armed. They replied that they were not. McCord "frisked" them hastily and , it proved, too hastily.

Stops Two Bullets

One of the men asked the sheriff in which buggy he wanted them to ride, their own or the Armstrong rig. The sheriff designated the Armstrong buggy. The moment the officer turned one of the two men, the larger of the pair, and the one who had not been doing any of the talking, fired at McCord at a distance of not more than fifteen feet. The ball, from a .38 caliber long revolver, struck McCord in the right hip, entering the pelvic bone and causing what was known as "a Garfield shot" owing to the similarity of the wound to that which killed President Garfield.

McCord, who was quick, saw Reynolds, as he pulled his gun and made a leap to one side, thinking to cause the man to miss. Reynolds was a good shot, however, and followed his first with a second ball from his revolver which struck the sheriff in the right breast but only caused a flesh wound. Reynolds fired a third time as McCord fell, but missed. After he had been hit the first time, McCord tried to get his own gun, but it caught in his clothing and he could not get it into action. Finally, however, as he lay sorely wounded, and Reynolds and his pal were behind their horse for cover, McCord managed to get his gun and shoot the burglars' horse. From behind the struggling horse the two men ran across the road, thru a potato patch, and into a cornfield.

Posse Forms Quickly

Altho in those days telephones were not so common as they are now, it was work of comparatively a short time before the news spread and a large posse was formed. Men and boys, armed with revolvers, shotguns and even small 22-caliber target rifles, and many of them mounted, drove to the scene of the shooting.

Doctors were hurried to aid the wounded sheriff, and he was brought to his apartment in the county jail at 5:30 two hours after the shooting. An hour before that the posse had started, and before evening almost 300 persons had joined in the search for Reynolds and Bedford.

It was an easy matter to follow the two men because of the muddy condition of the fields, and the trail led them to a point between the Ed Powell farm and the Wolfgang place, farther to the east. The posse was well organized, even tho it was formed hastily, and was headed by the late Ben O. Rhoades, who had preceded McCord as sheriff and had had him as one of his deputies, and Gen. B.A. Beeson.

Early in the evening Bedford was captured after Sol Wright, one of the possemen, had fired four shots at him and missed each time. Upon throwing up his hands, Bedford was searched and a big revolver was taken from him. J.W. (Newt) Garwood, who was with Wright, divided the honor of the capture, and J.L. (Jim) Williams and H.O. (Hank) Michaels brought Bedford to the county jail.

Bedford was fearful of being lynched and this might have happened had not an appeal been made thru the Times-Republican by the wounded sheriff that no demonstration be made at the jail because of his illness. Bedford gave to Harry East, one of the sheriff's deputies, all the information he could about Reynolds, including a good description and the haunts the man might seek to cover his tracks."

The article goes on to relate how Company D of the Iowa National Guard participated in the search for Reynolds. He was finally captured one week later in Council Bluffs on July 29, "but not until after he had attempted to shoot a policeman who called upon him to halt" - "but the cartridge failed to explode. It was the last shell the man had in his possession."

"Briefly told Reynolds' capture was due to his stealing a ride on a Northwestern train." The brakeman had put a man off his train & "another railroad man had seen a printed description of Reynolds and believed the man Warner had put off the train was the one wanted." The Council Bluffs police were notified and Reynolds was arrested. "Reynolds and Bedford were indicted Dec. 17, 1884. . . Following his trial Judge Henderson sentenced Reynolds to twenty-two years in the Fort Madison penitentiary, and Bedford to eleven years. . . Reynolds died in the insane ward of the prison."

Life Full of Thrills

"The life of George McCord, Marshall County's fighting sheriff, was one that had been filled with thrills before it was ended on March 31, 1913, at his home in Oakland, Calif.

Serving in an Ohio regiment of infantry during the Civil War, and commanding a company as its first lieutenant, McCord was taken prisoner, managed to escape and was hunted down by bloodhounds and captured. For six months he was a prisoner in the hell hole at Andersonville. Not long after being released from the souther prison he was taken to Vicksburg and there placed on board the ill-fated Sultana, whose boilers burst when she was making a trip up the Mississippi. McCord was in the water several hours and finally picked up by the steamer Jennie Lind.

Another close call from death while he was sheriff resulted in Virginia when he went to arrest a man charged in this county with stealing cattle. This man saw McCord first and fired. He missed. McCord closed in on him, wrested his revolver from him, and brought him back to this city for trial."

The "Tulare and Kings Counties, CA, History" shows that in the election of 1896 George B. McCord, Republican, was defeated by James McClellan, Fusionist, when running for assemblyman by 203 votes. Total votes cast were 1613.

George is listed in the "History of Marshall County, IA" as : "McCord, G.B., clerk".

Following is Dr. McCord's obituary written by Wolfgang Saxon:

William Maxwell McCord, 61, Author and Sociology Professor

Dr. William Maxwell McCord, an author on social and urban issues and a sociology professor at City College of New York, died on Monday at Yale University Health Services Center in New Haven. He was 61 years old and lived in Guilford, Conn.

His family said yesterday that he had died of injuries sustained in a car crash in Guilford on July 9.

Dr. McCord, a native of St. Louis, was a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Stanford University and earned a doctorate in social science at Harvard in 1955. That year he began his teaching career as a Harvard instructor in social psychology. He returned to Stanford to join the sociology department in 1958 and gained tenure at the age of 28.

He spent six years teaching at Rice University in Houston and Syracuse University before moving to City College in 1971. He served as sociology department chairman for 10 years, until 1983, and lectured widely overseas at universities from Dublin to Cairo to Singapore.

Dr. McCord was a co-author of books and monographs on delinquency and crime and later ranged over economic development, international politics and urban affairs. His credits grew to 17 books and nearly 100 articles.

Among his works were "The Springtime of Freedom: Evolution of Developing Societies" (Oxford University Press, 1965), "Mississippi: The Long, Hot Summer" (W.W. Norton, 1965), and more recently, "Paths to Progress" (Norton, 1986), written with his wife, Arline McCord. Researching the Mississippi book, Dr. McCord joined the Freedom Riders in their drive against racial segregation.

In addition to his wife, the former Arline Fujii, Dr. McCord is survived by five sons, Geoffrey, of Durham, N.C., Robert, of Narberth, PA., Maxwell, of White Plains, and William of Guilford; a daughter, Elinor Mary McCord, also of Guilford; a stepdaughter, Dr. Karen Sakuma of Seattle; two stepsons, Theodore Sakuma of Orangeburg, N.Y., and Michael Sakuma, of Stony Brook, L.I., and six grandchildren.

Howard McCord has James' pension file which shows him as 61 in 1851, 67 in 1856, 85 in 1871. He served under Captain John Junkins -Mercer Co.,PA - beginning in October 1812 until discharge at Fort Meigs May 1, 1813. He lost his discharge papers when his house burned in 1814. David Moffitt and George H. Nodurft signed a statement that they had known James & Hannah since 1832. James was haying in the field on his farm and watched the Battle of Lake Erie. War of 1812 - Capt. John Junkin's Co.-Mercer Co.,PA - a Private. Oct. 3, 1827 buys 80 acres in Warren Co., Indiana, with brother John McCord.

James lived about 1 1/2 miles north of Independence, Warren Co., IN. He walked from here to work on the land in Liberty Twp. which he had bought from the U.S. government. He built a house-log cabin. He also built the barn which is still standing (1992). The sills are of solid walnut. Also had a big cistern. Mrs. McCord baked the pies for the barn raisers in a brick oven. She also milked the cows and would carry coals in an iron kettle to the cow pen to warm her hands. She stayed up late and got up late. When she got up she would ring the bell for her husband to come to breakfast from the field. James was also a cabinet maker and made coffins.

The farm purchased by James from the government is still owned by a descendent and the fifth generation (Malcolm Anderson) lives there (1957).

The house which James built was three rooms and a large porch. It was built in the center of the farm and there were two roads out. To Attica and Rainsville to the west and relatives came in from the north opening two or three gates and coming through the neighbor's farm. There were about 100 hard maple trees just north of the house and barn and some of these trees still stand. The farm is now on Indiana State Road 55.

Following per Howard McCord:

"Today in Warren County, Indiana, there are at least three farms that trace directly back to James and his children who remained there. Two of the farms are back in family hands. The third (Jame's son Robert A.'s farm) is yet reclaimable one day. A proud well-maintained towering McBride built farm house still stands and services its owners. A similar quality McBride home stood on the McCord Steele's daughter Layna's farm until accidentally ravaged by fire. McBrides are also part of the family and may be some of the same who lived along side us in other stops including California."

"It is believed the reason the Indians came through Jame's farm was the Ancient Spring Tree. A spring tree is an old tree - oak or walnut variety - with a limb tied downward (deformed) by the Indians to mark visually to anyone nearby the presence of a good spring."

From "Warren County Reflections" - VOL XI, Number III "JAMES MCCORD'S SHEEP BARN"

"This barn was constructed about 1850 on land James McCord received from the government as a bounty for his military service during the War of 1812. It is a large barn measured by the standard of the day. The length from east to west is sixty feet and width north to south, forty-eight. It's purpose was to house sheep and to store sheep feed.

The entire sixty foot, ten feet high north side foundation was made of hewn sandstone blocks set into a hillside. This construction formed a 'bank barn'. Entering through side doors from the north bank, a team and wagon could be driven onto the second floor to deposit grain, ear corn, or hay onto the second floor level. Rope and pulleys lifted hay onto the third floor. Large 'niggerhead' rocks served as the original foundation for the south side and for the two ends. At some time during the life of the barn, the 'niggerheads' have been replaced with well constructed concrete footings. Posts that support lintels which in turn support floor joists to form the second floor level were set upon the 'niggerhead' footings. Along the north side however, the lintel was laid directly onto the sandstone foundation. . .There are ten stringers, magnificent timbers, each twenty-eight feet long which hold the barn sides together. Where a ninety degree angle resulted from a union of post to lintel, a six-by-six inch hand hewn brace, tenoned on each end, was mortised into the post and then into the lintel and pinned with a wood dowel....

Beverly Anderson Bradley, great-great-great-granddaughter of James McCord and the present owner of the barn and land upon which it sits, recalls her father filled in a large cistern which was located at the northeast corner of the barn. The cistern leaked and was a hazard and no longer useful.

There were unsuccessful attempts by gunstock makers during the Civil War and again during World War I to purchase and tear down the structure for it's walnut timbers. However, after approximately 135 years of normal weathering forces the barn stands straight and sound, a testimonial to the craftsmanship of it's unknown builder or builders. Some of James McCord's sons and their cousins, the McBrides, are known to have built early barns and houses in the area. It is not certain that they built this barn.

In all, James McCord received 160 acres of bounty land for his military service. To this he added an additional 160 acres for a total of 320 acres of contiguous owned land located along Indiana State Highway 55 in Liberty Township. His land lay in the transition area between the Eastern Hardwood Forests and the Grand Prairie of West Central Indiana and East Central Illinois. When the early white settlers came to Liberty Township, the major portion was covered with dense growths of magnificent hardwood trees. It has been said that this was one of the finest stands of hardwood timber that the World has ever produced. To James McCord's generation, the forest was a barrier to progress, a foe to agriculture, a refuge for Indians, bears, wolves, panthers, wildcats, lynx, as well as deer and other gentler wild creatures. The land had to be cleared, the stumps pulled and burned before crops could be grown. James McCord needed sheep - lots of sheep - to keep his cleared land free of root sprouts and fit for cultivation."

Following written by Adilda McCord:

"James and Hannah first settled in Indiana about 1 1/2 miles north of Independence. They came to Warren County, Indiana about 1828, at least that is when the record of this land was made in Crawfordsville. The barn which was built upon his farm on Road 55 between Pine Village and Attica still stands in good shape and can be seen back of Marshall Anderson's house. It was to be built for $100 or 80 acres of land and was originally a sheep barn. The owners have been in a direct line since that day: James McCord, his grandson, James W. McCord, Great-granddaughter, Lizzie Anderson, and now great-great-grandson, Marshall

Anderson who lives there.

This farm was on the trail of the Potawatomi Indian Tribe whose chief was Parrish. They traveled from their camp on the Wabash River to the trading post near Chicago. Uncle Billy Cobb says in the Warren County Centennial book they passed his house. James did not get along with Parrish. His relations with the other Indians seemed to be friendly. Since the Indians often passed between the house and barn and made threatening remarks to the women, James decided he should be reconciled to Parrish. While the Indians squatted on the ground around the fire, the two men met. The liquor of the day was to seal their friendship. Parrish drank from the gourd and before he passed it to James, he spit in it. After a bit of hesitation, James accepted it and drank. That night Parrish, whose custom it was to sleep in a tree for protection, fell and broke his neck. James felt strongly his humiliation which had served no purpose.

James had very decided views. Aunt Hannah said he was 'bog Irish'. His womenfolk tried hard to change him at times. The story goes, he would sit on the porch and spit in the house. He was a cabinet maker and made caskets or coffins.

When his son George was to be married, his wife prevailed on him to put on a clean shirt. He did, then put the dirty shirt over the clean one. HANNAH: Hannah was the daughter of Thomas Morris (born in Ireland) and Mary More. A conflicting report shows Mary's last name as Morse and states both she and Thomas were born in America, but Mary's father came from Ireland. When 14 years old, Hannah and her parents moved from Pennsylvania to Ohio. Hannah's father, Thomas Morris, was probably the Thomas Morris mentioned with James and John McCord as being an early settler of Groton Twp., Erie Co., OH, "History of Huron and Erie Counties, Ohio".

Written by Adilda McCord:

"He (James) was in the War of 1812 and the government paid great grandmother a pension of $8.00 a month. The ballad 'James Bird' was perhaps her best loved song commemorating as it did the death of this young patriot. She loved to sing and kept alive this period for her grandchildren. Blind and sitting in her chair by the fireplace, she sang 'Gypsy Davie' and 'The Battle of Tippecanoe'. We have a legend that she was related to Robert Morris, the financier, who gave himself and collected money from his friends for (serving in) the Revolution."

Following are the words to "James Bird" which Hannah sang - when she did so James would leave the house as it made him sad. (Some of the words are difficult to read - so I'll try to come close.)

Sons of freedom listen to me and my daughters to give ear. You a sad and mournful story as was ever told shall hear. Hull you know his troops surrendered and defenseless left the West, Then our forces quick assembled the invader to resist.

Amongst the troops that marched to Erie we've the Kingston volunteers. Captain Thomas them commanded to protect our West frontiers. Tender were the scenes of parting; mothers wrung their hands and cried, Maidens wept their swains in secret; fathers strove their hearts to hide.

But there is one amongst the number tall and graceful in his mein, From his step, his look undaunted, scarce a nobler youth was seen. One sweet kiss he snatched from Mary, craved his mother's prayer once more, Pressed his father's hand and left them for Lake Erie's distant shore.

Mary tried to say farewell, James; waved her hand but nothing spoke. Goodby Bird may heaven protect you from the rest a parting look. Soon they came where noble Perry had assembled along with all his fleet. There the gallant Bird enlisted hoping soon the foe to meet.

Where is Bird the battle rages; is he in the string or not - Now the cannons roar tremendous, dare he meet the hostile foe? Oh behold him see him Perry in the self-same ship they fight, Though his mess mates fall around him nothing makes his soul affright.

But behold! a ball has struck him, see the crimson current flow, "Leave the deck", exclaimed brave Perry. "No" cried Bird, "I will not go." Here on deck I took my station, Me'er will Bird his colors fly. "I'll stand by you gallant Captain, we will conquer or we die."

Still he fought though faint and bleeding till our stars and stripes arose, Victory having crowned our efforts all triumphant o'er our foes. And did Bird receive a pension? Was he to his friends restored? No never to his bosom clasped the maid his heart adored.

But there came most dismal tidings from Lake Erie's distant shores, Better far if Bird had panicked midst the battle's awful roar. "Dearest parents," said the letter, " this will bring sad news to you, Do not mourn your first-beloved though it bids his last adieu."

I must suffer for deserting from the brig in agony. Read this letter brothers sisters tis the last you'll hear from me. Sad and gloomy was the morning Bird was ordered out to die. Where's the heart not filled with pity - but for him would heave a sigh.

Though he fought so brave at Erie, fiercely bled and nobly dared, Let his courage plead for mercy, let his precious life be spared. See him march and bear his fetters, harsh they clang upon the air; But his step is firm and manly for his heart no horrors fear.

See he kneels upon his coffin sure his death can do no good. Spare him, Hark! Oh, God , they have shot him - oh, his bosom streams with blood. Farewell, Bird, farewell forever, friends and home he'll see no more. But his mangle corpse lies buried on Lake Erie's distant shore

NOTE: James Bird was shot as a deserter. Perry rode a horse to death trying to save him.

"Robert, our grandfather, and his second wife and young children on the prairie south of Boswell made their home. Father spoke of working with him there. This land was given at his death to the three younger children who held it until their maturity. After marriage all three lived for a time in the Armstrong Church neighborhood near Aunt Ellen Gephart's home on Road 26. Aunt Becky owned her prairie land through the first half of 1900. Aunt Betty from her father received the Benson land, eight acres east of the 'Old Home' place where Mac Steele lives. Her great-grandson, Billy Paul Jones, now owns it. That farm passed from Robert, Betty Jones, Jimmy, Isaac, and Billy Paul and all Jones.

I have a license issued to Robert McCord as a cattle broker in Warren Co. for 1846.

Grandfather was living on the Benson place when he took pneumonia and died in 1886. He and his two wives are buried in the Quaker Cemetery. Aunt Becky told me she was thirteen when her father died but she didn't know until the next morning.

Grandfather McCord raised horses. Father said in the spring he and his brothers had to go into the pasture and take the unbroken colts and make their teams for the crops from them. In the fall their father sold them. Runaways were common. My mother, her mother, and brother, Uncle Grant Hall, lived with Uncle Jack and Aunt Hannah Mills at this time as their father, Allen Hall, had died of typhoid. They were living at the Melton place, in the house which afterwards was moved to the McCord place where it now stands east of the new home Mac Steele built. Mother was a child at the time and she was living close enough to see what was happening at the McCord place. She said, 'If you wanted to see a runaway, you just looked over into McCord's pasture before a storm and you could see one.' When my father took over the farm he never raised horses except for farm work."

From letter written 8/3/1991 by McCord Steele regarding an existing picture of James McCord's house:

"This is the house where Robt A. fled into the cornfield. He was a small boy at the time and he had been taught to hide when Indians were in the area. While hiding, he fell asleep in the tall corn and all night long his family searched and called, and gave up, convinced that he had been stolen. However, when daylight came, he awoke and came back to the house."

"Another picture is of the house Robt A. built on SR26 east of Pine Village - Aunt Ellen Gephart's house where we stopped to get pictures.... Robt A. gave all his children 160 acres or $8000. He had ten children who survived to adults. California became the recipient of a great deal of his wealth and of Indiana resources. In 1877, Robt A gave Joseph H. and Jonathan D. each 160 acres of what has been called 'The Old Home Place'. This is the 320 acres that Margaret and I purchased from Joseph H.'s estate in 1951, and have sold to our daughter Layna Cottingham. It has been in the family since 1828.

In 1881 Jonathan D. sold his 160 acres back to his father, Robt A., for $8000 to finance his adventure to California.

Lizzie Jones has penned on the picture of James' house that James W., father of Sarah and Bessie, lived at the farm when Sarah was born. At the time James W. left for California, he and his family lived on a farm just north of Pine Village. That was Robt A. land, and I assume James W. had heired the land he sold to finance his trip to California! Anyway if I am not careful, I will develop a thesis that California is indebted to Indiana for it's existence! James W., Jonathan D., Rebecca, and Samuel all took their Indiana inheritance to California. Their sister Harriet married Robert Hurst and they went to Wyoming. Lilly Mae married Levi Wright and moved to land they purchased in Oklahoma. I think all of Robt A. children lost their land except Elizabeth and Joseph H. What a bunch of prodigals!"

Robert and his first wife, Hannah Rhode, accompanied the Rhode family to Lead Hill, Boone County, Arkansas, in 1839. (See the story in Hannah's messages.) This was the very near Forsyth, Arkansas, where John McCord - Robert's uncle - had come in 1837. John died in 1839. The Rhodes and Robert A. McCord went back to Indiana in 1843. John's wife and family remained in Arkansas. HARRIET: Harriet Hannah was the daughter of Jonathan Rhode and Mary Harriet Anderson. Jonathan was the son of R.S. John Rhode who came from Germany. The Rhode's were all Quakers. John Rhode settled on the old Peter Hickman place near Winthrop, not far from James McCord's old place. Jonathan's brother Seymour Rhode bought 160 acres from Zadoc and Lilles (Campbell) Hurley (parents of his wife, Rebecca Hurley) and secured another 160 acres from the government. After Hannah (Seymour's neice) married Robert McCord in 1855, they purchased this 320 acres from him. Zadoc Hurley had originally purchased the 160 acres from the government in Crawfordsville in 1828. Zadoc's wife, Lilles Campbell, was the daughter of John Campbell. They were married at Union District, S. Carolina in either 1804 or 1805. (From Adilda McCord's memoirs)

From information obtained from Howard McCord entitled "Jonathan Rhode":

"Trek to the Ozarks

Jonathan Rhode evidently got tired of grubbing out the white oak stumps and fighting the 'ager' of the poorly drained land in Indiana. So in about 1839 he decided to trek to the Ozarks in Arkansas, where fishing and hunting would help supply the needs of his family. His whole family, including his wife Mary, his five sons and two daughters, were loaded into the wagons and they set off for the Ozarks. The two daughters were married by this time, also some of the sons. As near as can be learned the following made the trip to the Ozarks:

Jonathan and his wife, Mary

Five sons - Daniel, John, Joseph and wife, Caleb, and Seymour

Two daughters - Alice with her husband William Cobb

Hannah with her husband Robert McCord

How long they were on their way, their adventures with hostile Indians, the difficulties of fording swollen streams, or the trail they followed - no record has been left behind. Probably they went down along the Wabash River, then crossed the Ohio River, where it joins the Wabash, and then down along the Ohio until it joins the Mississippi. After going down the Mississippi a short distance, they probably crossed over into the state of Arkansas.

They settled in what was then called Marion County, but which is now Boone County, which is located on the northern tier of counties next to the Missouri line and on the western border of Arkansas. The nearest trading post was a place called Lead Hill, which is still a town by that name. Lead Hill is on Sugar Loaf Creek, and a few miles away is the White River.

For four or five years the Jonathan Rhode clan tried to farm in this region, but without the success they had anticipated. The men folks spent much time hunting and fishing. Many are the bedtime stories that have been told to the children of succeeding Rhode descendants, concerning the exploits and adventures of the Rhode bear hunters in the Ozarks. It is said that the Rhode bear hunters did not hesitate to go into the bears' caves where they were hibernating, and kill them with knives. It is also said they all got very tired of eating bear meat and longed for pork again.

Leaving the Ozarks

While the Jonathan Rhode clan had wonderful adventures and success in hunting and fishing in the Ozarks, they found that there was not the opportunity to get ahead in farming. So after about four or five years spent there, they loaded their goods in the wagons and started the return trip to Indiana about 1843. All the sons and daughter made the trip back, except the oldest son Daniel, who remained for several years and then went to western Iowa, where he arrived in 1847. Son Joseph and his wife had two children boys to them while in the Ozarks, and perhaps there were children born to some of the others.

It was a sad trip back, as they left behind Mary (Anderson) Rhode, Jonathan's wife and mother of the 5 sons and 2 daughters who had gone along to the Ozarks. When she was in her last sickness, and she knew she was going to die, she made them all promise they would leave the Ozarks and go back to make their homes in Indians again. She passed away in 1843. Her grave is in the Cedar Grove cemetery near Lead Hill, Ark., on the old Rhode farm.

Jonathan's father, John Rhode, had passed away in 1840, just before or soon after they had left for the Ozarks. Jonathan's mother, Mary (Lewis) Rhode had died in 1843 while they were in the Ozarks, or soon after they returned.

In 1955 additional information was received about the Rhode farm in Arkansas from the owner, Lloyd Pumphrey, of Lead Hill, Ark., who is a relative of the wife of Isaac Rhode, a son of William Rhode. The old Rhode farm, as it is called, consists of 139 acres. According to old deeds it was once the property of the following sons of William Rhode: Isaac, Joel, Caleb, Lewis, Seymour, Jacob, William and other persons. Isaac was evidently the only one of these who lived and farmed here during his life. What was the farming status of the Jonathan Rhodes clan is not known. There is no record of them owning this farm. However according to Lloyd Pumphrey, the wife of Jonathan Rhode is buried in the Cedar Grove cemetery on this farm. The grave is unmarked except for two large rocks. Nearby is Bull Shoals, created in recent years by a Government dam on the White River which has become quite a resort area."

John Rhode - grandfather of Hannah Rhode McCord - was native born German in South Carolina, later migrated to Ohio and then to Indiana. He served in the Revolutionary War in the Commissary Department. The family were Quakers. In the south he was a "planter" with slaves which he freed when he came to Ohio. When he came to Indiana he had two black employees, a cook and a blacksmith. LYDIA: Lydia was a widow - I think Kidney was her married name and Atchinson was her maiden name.

PIONEER STOCK RAISER CALLED

"James W. McCord one of the best known residents of this county passed away at his home early Sunday morning after being in poor health for some months. His condition has been considered serious for the past several days and his death did not come as a surprise to the many friends of the deceased. His passing is felt none the less, however, as Mr. McCord had many close friends in this community who regret his death.

Mr. McCord is survived by his widow and the following daughters: Misses Hope, Sarah and Bessie McCord, Mrs. Ruth Gribi and Mrs. W. E. Clute.

The funeral will be held from his late home this afternoon at 2:30 and the Masonic order will have charge of the service. Mr. McCord was also a member of the Elks Lodge and the Knights of Pythias.

The interment will be in the Hanford cemetery."

The following article is from "The Warren Review" on 12/7/1893:

"Finds a Home in the West

James W. McCord, with a party of fifteen, left for his new home in Handford (sic), King's county, California, via the Wabash route, Monday evening. The party consisted of Mr. McCord, wife and eight children, together with Miss May Gaskell and Lillie Swadley; Jas. McBride and three children, and Lan McGinnis.

Kings county joins Kern county on the north and Mr. McCord's place of about 600 acres is about forty miles north of Bakersfield. Before leaving, Mr. McCord also purchase Wm. Stephens' interest, of West Lebanon, in the Hoosier Lumber Company, paying a good round price for the same, and stated to our correspondent that that was one of our Hoosier friend's best interests in California, if they only would proceed on the line they started out and quit depreciating the value of the stock by trying to fight each other because it required more to start the enterprise than was at first estimated. He said the lumber business was guilt-edged (sic) and no mistake, all reports to the contrary, notwithstanding. Mr. McCord has been one of Warren county's best citizens and a large land owner and shrewd dealer, and his judgement having been all over the field, should be worth considering."

NOTE: This article states James had 8 children. We show only 6. Could we be missing 2 or is this in error???

The following article appeared in the Attica Ledger Tribune on 11/23/1911:

"James McCord Back on Visit

Mr. and Mrs. James McCord of Hanford, Calif., arrived here last Thursday for a visit with relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. McCord went to California over eighteen years ago from Pine Village, Mr. McCord having bought an interest in the Bakersfield timber land deal of which Dr. Fenton, the Auditor of Warren county, was the chief promoter. Mr. McCord says the deal was a failure financially and that none of the investors ever realized what they put into it. He remained at Bakersfield but a short time when he and family moved to the San Joaquin valley, near Hanford, where Mr. McCord bought a big tract of land. He now owns two or three farms near Hanford and is doing well. Their chief crops are wheat and alfalfa and fruits. Mr. and Mrs. McCord spent Thursday night with Mr. and Mrs. Will Colvert who paid them a visit when they made their western trip a few years ago, and Friday night they visited with Mr. and Mrs. George McCord. They went from here to Chatterton Saturday morning near which place they will visit their neice, Mrs. Ada Eberly. They will then visit relatives in Pine Village and Otterbain, Mr. McCord having a brother at the latter place. They will also visit Joe McCord another brother at Kingman."

Following is the last part of an article by Doris Robertson Polley called "The History of One House on Douty Street". The first part of the article is under Jonathan (#454).

James the First

"Jonathan was preceded to California by James, his older brother. James had a family in Indiana but a real estate man encouraged him to come here to take a look at the farmin opportunities around Corcoran.

James was only going to spend a week or so in California but things were booming and he just kind of forgot to go home. Like most wives would, his wife got very concerned when the adventurous James didn't return.

She decided that to save her marriage she'd best make the trip to California to see what was keeping her errant husband. She packed up her baby, and with Jonathan coming along as escort, took the train for the long journey to Corcoran. James had no idea that they were on the way and one can only imagine his surprise when wife, baby and brother showed up on his doorstep.

James had already invested in Corcoran real estate. There must have been some pretty serious family discussions before they all agreed that it would be a good idea to make the move to California. So they all got on the train and went back to Indiana to sell out there. They packed up their possessions and rented a freight car for the move. They put their horses in the front end of the car and in the back end was the family with their beds and a cookstove ... and they came to California for good. Not exactly a first class trip.

In those days there weren't many trees in the area...at least not many that would provide lumber. Jonathan, the resourceful brother, build a little bachelor pad out of the enormous tules growing in the lake area. James had tents and he settled his wife and little girls in those makeshift shelters until he could build a house for them.

When James' house was finally built, the family took in a boarder who happened to be the new school marm, Anna Gordon. Jonathan fell in love with Miss Gordon and the two were married.

Like most of the farmers around Tulare Lake, their fortunes rose and fell with the waters in the immense inland lake. Some years were good and others were disastrous as their acreage flooded and was destroyed.

During the good times, Jonathan built the lovely Douty Street home for his family. Jonathan never was very good at business and his daughter, Nina McCord Fratis, said years later that he probably lost all of his money in ill-fated ventures. Mrs. McCord, sensing the insecurity of the family fortune, decided to go to summer session in Berkeley to renew her teaching credential. The rest of her life she taught school.

The family lived in Hanford until 1924. Jonathan and Anna had four children growing up in the old house until they moved to San-Pedro to live with Jonathan's brother Sam. Later they lived in San Francisco. Anna McCord passed away in 1929 and Jonathan died back here in Hanford in 1934." CLARA: Was Clara the daughter of the harridan told about in Lois McCord Bailey's story - see under James' brother Joseph Harvey McCord - ? SARAH: Sarah's lineage is given in a work entitled "Benjamin and Esther (Furnas) Pearson; Their Ancestors and Descendants" compiled by George M. Pearson, 1305 Ocean Front, Venice, CA, in 1941. From "Benjamin and Esther (Furnas) Pearson; Their Ancestors and Descendants"

SARAH ANGELINE PEARSON MCCORD

"She was born near Covington, Ohio, and passed away in Hanford, California. In 1854 she moved with her parents to a farm near Pine Village, Indiana. She was educated in the public schools of West Milton and Covington, Ohio, attending the high school at the latter place. After finishing her education she taught school. In 1877 she was married in Indiana to James W. McCord. Six children were born to this marriage. After their marriage they moved on the old homestead of Mr. McCord's father, which was near Attica, Indiana, later to a farm near Pine Village. In 1893 they moved to Hanford, California, where Mrs. McCord spent the remainder of her life. She was an active member of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Hanford. She was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star and the Relief Corps of the G.A.R. She is remembered for her helpfulness to others and her warm active sympathy."

Note: Sarah's sister, Mary C., married James McBride and lived in Pine Village, IN (possibly one of the "house-building" McBrides).

The 1920 Census shows Sarah at age 67 living in Hanford, CA, with her 3 unmarried daughters, Bessie - 39, Sara - 37, and Hope - 35; also a Maurice Jones age 21 born in Ohio.

JOSEPH H. MCCORD

Joseph H. McCord, a farmer and stock-raiser of Warren county was born on the farm where he now resides in Adams township, October 7, 1855, a son of Robert and Hannah (Rhodes) McCord. James F. McCord, the grandfather, came to Warren county in 1822, locating in Warren township, where he lived a short time and then moved to Liberty township and entered the homestead now in possession of Elizabeth Anderson, consisting of eighty acres, for which he paid the regular government fee of a dollar and a quarter an acre. Here he died, at the advanced age of eighty-four years.

Robert McCord came to Warren county in 1822, with his father's family and grew to manhood in Liberty township. In the spring of 1855 he purchased the farm on which our subject now lives, and which comprised four hundred acres. He resided there and in that vicinity until his death, which took place in 1885, when he was in his sixty-sixth year. He was twice married, his first wife being Hannah Rhodes, by whom he had eight children, namely: Harriet, deceased; Elizabeth, who is the widow of Isaac Jones and lives in Pine Village; James W. is in California; Elvira is the wife of A.W. Gephart and they live near Pond Grove; Jane married Allen Eberly and lives near Pine Village; Joseph H. is our subject; Jonathan lives in California; and Alice is deceased. For his second wife Mr. McCord married Mrs. Lydia Kidney, widow of James Kidney, and four children were born of this union; Rebecca, who lives near Pond Grove; Lillie, the wife of Levin Wright; Samuel is a resident of Pond Grove; and Robert is deceased.

Joseph H. McCord has always lived on the home farm, with the exception of three years and upon attaining his majority took entire charge of the place. To the original land he has added from time to time, and besides the home place, comprising three hundred and twenty acres, he owns three other farms, of one hundred and fifty-five, one hundred and five, and one hundred and ninety-one acres, respectively, which are located in Adams and Warren townships. His home is located four miles southeast of Pine Village, on the Rounseville and Green Hill road, and is a highly-improved and well-managed farm.

On October 10, 1880, Mr. McCord was united in marriage to Miss Addie Hall, who was born in 1860, a daughter of Allen and Ellen (Frazier) Hall. Six children have been born to Mr. and Mrs. McCord: Robert, James, Mary, Addie, Ellen and Josie. In his political belief our subject is a staunch Republican, and his religious affiliations is a consistent member of the Christian church at Pine Village. He and his family possess the high regard of a large circle of friends.

From a Fountain County newspaper dated 3/9/1905:

"Joseph McCord who moved from Pine Village to Kingman a few years ago has traded his hardware store in Kingman to R.A. Booze for the latter's stock in the Kingman bank."

From Lois Hall McCord Bailey:

"Jim and Joe were close as children and young men. One morning, Joe saw Jim out hitching up his team. When Joe asked what was the occasion, Jim said he was going to be married that day. Father's answer was, 'Who to?' The wedding, which my father attended, was a bit unusual. The mother of the bride seems to have been a harridan. She was coming into the room where the marriage was to take place apparently to cause a ruckus. Two of her daughters took her by each arm and removed her bodily. When this same woman's husband died, she wanted a picture of him. She solved the dilemma by standing him in a corner until the photographer could make the picture. She was no relation to us."

From Adilda McCord's memoirs:

A part of the land which Joseph McCord owned was originally purchased by Zadoc & Lilles (Campbell) Hurley in 1828 from the government at Crawfordsville, IN. Zadoc sold it to his son-in-law and daughter (Seymour and Rebecca (Hurley) Rhode in 1830. Robert and Hannah (Rhode) McCord bought the land from Hannah's uncle Seymour around 1855.

"Bob McCord gave all of his ten children 80 acres of land or $5000. My father, Joseph, took the land and, in 1877, bought 80 acres more. This purchase gave Father the west 160 acres of the 'Old Home Place'. In 1880 and for a consideration of $8000, Father bought the east 160 acres from Grandfather. In 1885, Father sold Mother the 80 acres where the house was. I always understood Mother inherited enough to buy this 80 acres from her father, Allen Hall. Father and Mother held the 320 acres the rest of their lives. Father traded and bought other land but never bargained with this land. It is a beautiful piece of ground, slightly rolling with 'The Branch' - a branch of the Kickapoo - running through the pasture land. It has always had two woods, one on the west border, the other in the center of the east side following the Branch.

"The big old house burned while 'the boys', Father, Uncle Jim, Uncle Jon't, 'Aunt Jane and I think Great Grandmother were living there. A letter of Caleb and Rachael Rhode, who lived at the 'Old Home Place', to Jonathan Rhode, who was living at Lead Hill, Arkansas, dated Oct 24th, 1840, described this old house. (See copy of letter in notes under Harriet Hannah Rhode.)

In excavating the basement for the new house, an elaborate water and drainage system was uncovered. Water had been forced through the metal pipe into the old house by a hydraulic ram and drainage tile carried the waste out and away from the house. The spring which supplied the water is plotted on the map of Adams Twp. in the 1877 Historical Atlas of Warren Co. and may well have been a deciding factor for Zadoc Hurley in his selection of land on the new frontier. In 1959, McCord Steele dammed the ravine downstream from the spring and there is now a small lake just back of the house. On the bank of the lake grows a large Burr Oak tree which Father said was an old tree when he was a boy.

When Grandfather's first wife died, she left 8 children. My father, Joe McCord, was next to the youngest. Joe was naturally left-handed, but his left arm was broken in the elbow and, since he never had it set, he was forced to use his right hand. I also asked him once why he had such deep furrows between his eyebrows. He said, 'After my mother died I lost my hat, and never had another one to shade my eyes from the sun.'

Great grandmother, Hannah McCord, was blind and smoked a pipe. Father said he learned to chew tobacco by lighting his grandmother's pipe. He thought the cause of the fire which destroyed the house probably started from ashes of a pipe falling in a cob bucket." MARY: "Addie was the daughter of Allen Campbell Hall and Ellen Frazier. Ellen was the youngest of twelve children of David and Zema Frazier. They were both buried in Pine Village, IN. David died about 1841 when his youngest child, "Addie", was a year old. The oldest child, Eli, was 21. One child, Joseph, died soon after his father, and then Zema reared the other 11 children with the help of Eli. David was a veteran of the War of 1812. He furnished and drove a supply wagon for the troops at the Battle of New Orleans. He received no payment for this in the service and when people asked Zema why she did not apply for compensation, she answered that she did not want her country to pay her as long as it was in debt.

Their children were: Eli, David, Silas, Caliph, James, Edward, Maria, Fairby Ann, Jane, Hannah and Ellen.

My grandmother married Allen Campbell Hall. They had two children, my mother ("Addie") was born Nov. 6, 1860, the day Lincoln was elected president the first time. Uncle Grant was about 3 years younger. When mother was 10, her father died of typhoid fever. My mother said he had paid for 400 acres of land in the short time he lived. Both mother and Uncle Grant were sick with typhoid fever and they were taken with Grandmother to Aunt Hannah Mills' to live. At the ale which closed their home, Uncle Eli showed his concern. At that time he lived in East Lynn, Illinois. He came by train to Oxford where he rented a buggy to take him to his sister's farm, Ellen Hall's, to attend the sale. My mother said she had a recollection of his coming into the house, a big man with a shawl over his shoulders. Most of the Fraziers were quite large and overweight. At one time, my grandmother, her sister, Hannah Mills, and Uncle Grant, her son, all weighed over 250 pounds.

David Frazier fought in the Civil War. He was under General Thomas and fought at Vicksburg, Shiloh, Missionary Ridge. At Missionary Ridge, his company were ordered to take the confederate breastworks. They did this and then went on up the hill to complete the task. Some of the other we said Dave Frazier was one of the leaders of the charge. He was take prisoner and placed in Andersonville prison. When he came home, the family did not know him, he was so thin. Mother said he never was well after that. Uncle Dave married Sarah Best, and Aunt Hannah married Uncle Jack Mills on Jan. 1, 1866."

J.D. farmed on Tulare Lake & later moved to Hanford, CA, buying the Wildflower Ranch in 1911. Ranched until 1924. Then lived in San Pedro with brother, Sam & later moved to San Francisco to live with daughter, Aileen. From Adilda McCord's memoirs:

"When their mother died, Aunt Betty took care of my father (Joseph) and Aunt Harriet took care of Uncle Jon't, the youngest. Uncle Jon't would get up as his brothers and sisters started for school and follow them undressed. One of the girls would have to go back to feed him breakfast and dress him. The old house had a barrel of white sugar standing in the hallway. The lumps in it were a substitute for candy."

Jonathan died of a stroke.

The following newspaper article was written by Doris Robertson Polley for her column called "A Second Look" on July 18, 1993.

The History of one House on Douty Street

"I've never been quite certain just what elevates a big house into the mansion category. However, when I used to pass some of the beautiful old Victorian houses in Hanford (CA), I thought of them as mansions.

One stately home that always fascinated me was the old Cassidy house at 1404 W. Douty St. To me it was always the Cassidy house since that was the name of the family who lived there throughout my memory. I never knew it as anything else.

The Cassidys were a prominent Hanford family. Eugene Cassidy was mayor for several terms - at least in my memory it seems that he was always mayor. He was a delightful Irishman, rather short and sturdy, but the epitome of a small town politician.

He and his wife, Gertrude, worked side by side for many years in the Seventh Street store which they founded a long time ago.

Their slogan was 'Don't spend your life two feet from happiness.' You'll have to agree that it is a perfect motto for a shoe store.

The Cassidys had two children, Betty and Gene, and when they were growing up the lovely old home with its park-like setting was the scene for many wonderful parties. Entertaining there would be a delight.

It wasn't until recent years that I realized the mansion was built by a McCord and is part of the family history. Our relatives, the McCords, were a prolific bunch and the various branches of the family tree left an indelible stamp on Kings County history. Trying to sort out their stories is a complicated job.

The Douty Street home was built in 1901 by Jonathan Daniel "J.D." McCord with his brother James acting as contractor. The old adage that you should never put a relative in charge of your business doesn't hold water in this case. James really outdid himself in putting the house together. He must have demanded the finest in materials and workmanship since the house still stands as beautiful and proud as it was from the very first day when the family moved in.

Upstairs there are six rooms, a bathroom and a sleeping porch, screened in and located to catch the slightest summer breeze. Downstairs there are seven rooms, a half bath and another screened-in porch.

I've been told that one of the upstairs rooms was originally planned for a trunk room. In the days when even going to the coast by horse and buggy was something like an expedition, the family packed the trunks to carry all the necessary accoutrements.

Another of the rooms, which now serves as a dressing room, was once used for sewing. In those days it was customary for a seamstress to move in with the family once a year for a week or two. During that time she made clothes each member would need for the coming months.

The two brothers, Jonathan and James, prospered as farmers. They were part of a large family growing up in Warren County, Ind. Jonathan was just a baby when his mother died. His older sisters took the 3-year-old boy and raised him. This was around 1861. Later the father remarried and added three more McCords to the family tree.

To even things up, their father generously offered each of his children either property or cash in the amount of $50,000. The boys took the land and the girls took the money."

The remainder of this article is under James (#450) ANNA: Anna's mother was Isobel Cox born in Cork County, Ireland, of an Irish father and Scottish mother. One of 5 daughters of a horse-racing father; traveling to the States when Ireland's potato famine cut off their funds. Settled in Michigan with father's brothers. Anna's father, Alexander Gordon, was a bridge contractor of Scottish parents born in Canada, lived on a farm in Michigan not far from Port Huron. Anna, one of eight children, taught school in Michigan, then joined brothers in Paskenta, CA. Went to training school and received California teaching credential. Married - taught school most of her life, in Fresno and Kings County, while raising her family. Died of a coronary block - the result of a broken hip received while she was teaching.

Nathan Farmer's father took out the land where Orrie Milligan now lives. John Farmer - Nathan's son - visited his grandfather and played with Indian children. A large well was or is located on the Independence Road. It was open to the public and bound to make it a site of a settlement. There is a cemetery for both whites and Indians on the south side of the road.1. JAMES "JIM" FARMER #1977 b. ABT 1840/1850, NUMB. 3.2.1, m. NANCY WILLIAMS #1985, b. "Two landowners in Warren County, Roy McCord-Swanson and Marshall Anderson, descendants of Warren County pioneer, James McCord are residing on land that has been in their family 150 years. McCord, born near Pittsburg in 1787 to Robert and Ellen (English) McCord served in the War of 1812 then moved to Ohio where he married Hannah Morris on May 15, 1819.

It is believed he first settled 1-1/2 miles north of Independence around 1822. The land he worked in Liberty Twp., he purchased for $1.25 per acre. Roy's sheepskin with the government land patent shows that John Quincy Adams signed the purchase on January 3, 1828.

McCord was also a carpenter and the barn he built is still standing on Marshall's farm; the sills are of solid walnut. The house on the Swanson farm, also built of walnut, was started by McCord's son Samuel, Roy's grandfather. Originally the north-south road near the farms ran west of the houses. Later this road was abandoned and the road between Attica and Pine Village was straightened into State Road 55; the road now runs east of the farms. This change accounts for the site of the houses being located so far from the main road."

"James McCord, the great-great-grandfather of Frances was born near Pittsburg, Pennsylvania in 1787. He served in the war of 1812.

James came to Ohio. He married Hannah Morris May 5, 1819. They had 12 children. Only 6 lived to be married. They settled in Indiana 1 1/2 miles north of Independence, Warren County. He walked to work on the land in Liberty township which he bought from the U.S. government. He built a house and also built the barn which is still standing. James was also a cabinet maker.

One of the sons, Samuel McCord married Matilda Brier of Warren County. They had 8 children. He bought land joining his father from the government. Samuel started to build a house on the land, but died before it was completed. One of the sons George McCord, in 1876 married Amanda Jane Hopkins of Warren County. They moved on the farm and finished the house which is still there. To them were born John, who died in infancy, and a daughter Gertrude.

In 1901 Gertrude married Frank Swanson. Her parents moved to Attica, and they moved on the farm.

They had three children, Roy, Lillian, and Frances. Their mother died in 1918 and Frank retired in 1948 and moved to Attica. His son Roy moved on the farm. He still lives there. It is on State Road 55, 7 miles north of Attica.

Frances paternal grandfather was born in Sweden in 1836. He came over on a boat in 1860. This was Frank's father, John Swanson.

John married Charlotte Millburg. They settled north of Attica. They had six children. He walked to work at the Stone Quarry that was located near the old covered bridge over Pine Creek on the road to Pine Village just across the Wabash River from Attica. He worked there 26 years. After his wife died in April 1904 he lived with his son. He died in 1922.

Frank Swanson, in 1923 bought a farm in Davis Township, Fountain County. It was the Elijah Mattox Farm. Frank Mattox lived there then.

Roy Swanson and his grandmother McCord moved on the farm. Mr. McCord died in 1921. In 1925 Roy married and continued to live there until 1929.

Frances Swanson married Ray Holladay of Warren County in 1928. They lived in Lafayette a year then moved to the farm. Ray continued to farm until his death in July, 1960.

They had two sons, Ray Jr. and Donald. They graduated from Attica High School. Ray Jr. went to Purdue for two years. Both were in the service.

They married and farmed in Richland and Davis Township. After their father died both of them farmed for their mother several years.

Ray Jr. and his wife, Barbara, and two daughters moved to Lafayette. He died in January, 1978.

Donald still operates the farm. He and his wife, Nancy, and four sons live on the late Lafe Wilson farm in Davis Township now owned by Mrs. Jane Wilson.

Frances still lives on the farm and has been there 54 years."

Born in Warren County, She married Charles O. Blind of Colburn and had formerly lived near Pine Village. Surviving, besides the husband are two daughters, Mrs. Robert Cottingham north of Independence and Mrs. Claude D. CHARLES O. BLIND

This well known farmer, a trustee of Adams township, Warren County, was born on the farm where he now lives March 11, 1861. He is a son of John and Frances Mary (Gwin) Blind, natives of Ohio, the former of whom came to Indiana with his father at an early day. The sketch of this family will be found in that of Michael Blind on another page of this work. The father of our subject was twice married, his first wife being Harriet Goodfred, by whom he had one child, Marcellus. His second wife was Frances Mary Gwin, born in Medina township December 15, 1832, and her father was one of the early settlers of that township. Of this marriage four children were born, namely: George N., a farmer in Adams township; Frank B., also a farmer and stock-raiser in the same township; Anna M., wife of C.E. Russell; and Charles O.

The father of our subject came to Warren county about 1826 and located in Medina township, thence removing to Adams township and locating on the farm now occupied by his son Frank, where he remained until 1860, and then removed to the farm where our subject now lives, and where his death took place September 13, 1889, in his sixty-seventh year. He was an active member of the Methodist Episcopal church and a most estimable man. His widow is still living and resides in Pine Village.

The boyhood of our subject was spent as is that of farmer lads generally - in work upon the farm in summer and in attendance at the district schools during the winter seasons. He took charge of the home farm in 1884, and since that time has been employed in farming and stock-raising, and is associated with his brother Frank in buying and selling cattle. He owns one hundred and ten acres of land, situated on section 9, two miles east of Pine Village, which is under good cultivation.

Mr. Blind was married January 25, 1886, to Miss Emma J. McCord, and they have four children, - Anna Frances, Lucy (deceased), Ellen (deceased), and Charline.

In the fall of 1894 Mr. Blind was elected trustee of Adams township, and took charge of the office in August, 1895. He is a Republican in politics and a member of Lodge No. 200, Knights of Pythias, at Pine Village, and holds a membership in the order of American Woodmen. He is an efficient officer, a useful citizen, and is highly respected by all who know him. The family is connected with the Methodist church.

The two most strongly marked characteristics of both the East and the West are combined in the residents of the section of country of which this work treats. The enthusiastic enterprise which overleaps all obstacles and makes possible almost any undertaking in the comparatively new and vigorous western states is here tempered by the stable and more careful policy that we have borrowed from our eastern neighbors, and the combination is one of peculiar force and power. It has been the means of placing this section of the country on a par with the older East, at the same time producing a reliability and certainty in business affairs which is frequently lacking in the West. This happy combination of characteristics is possessed by the subject of this brief sketch, John G. McCord, who has spent practically his entire life in the county of his nativity.

John G. McCord was born in Liberty township, Warren county, Indiana, on July 25, 1859, and is the son of James and Esther (Little) McCord, both of whom also were natives of this county. The paternal grandfather, James McCord, who was a native of Pennsylvania, came to Warren county, Indiana, from Ohio, in 1828 and settled in Liberty township. To the subject's parents were born four children, namely: Mary L., who married a Mr. Allen and lives in Adams township; John G., the subject of this sketch; Charity Z., Mrs. Atchison, of Adams township, and Elizabeth, deceased. James McCord followed farming all his active years and was fairly successful. He was a man of marked strength of character and at all times possessed the respect and confidence of those who knew him.

John G. McCord received his elementary education in the public schools of Adams township, supplementing this by study at Purdue University. He then engaged in teaching school and in farming between times until 1883, when he engaged in the mercantile business at Pine Village. He continued in this line until 1889, when he resumed teaching for three years. He then engaged in the hardware business at Frankfort and Williamsport, Indiana, continuing thus until 1895. Mr. McCord was then elected to the office of county clerk and for eight and a half years he discharged the duties of this responsible position, his re-election to the office standing in evidence of the satisfactory character of his services. Upon his retirement from office, Mr. McCord accepted the position of cashier of the Bank of Pine Village, which was organized in 1905 as a private bank, with a capital stock of ten thousand dollars. The officers of this bank are James C. Jones, president; Clement H. Jones, vice-president; and John G. McCord, cashier. This bank has been very successful from the date of its organization and has been a direct stimulus to the business and commercial interests of the community.

On December 25, 1883, Mr. McCord was married to Martha F. Rhode, the daughter of Jacob M. and Mary J. Rhode, who were natives of Warren county. Mrs. McCord died in January, 1906, and subsequently Mr. McCord was married to Elizabeth Schoonover, to which union have been born two children, Esther Elizabeth and Mary Catherine.

Fraternally, Mr. McCord is a member of Lodge No. 34, Free and Accepted Masons at Williamsport, and to Lodge No. 200, Knights of Pythias, at Pine Village. He very ably and faithfully discharges his public duties and has long been regarded as one of the influential and public spirited men of his community. Personally, he is known to be a man of scrupulously honest principles, generous and kind - in short, a gentleman whom to know is to respect and admire, for with all his commendable attributes is entirely unassuming.

Following is an article from the Warren Republican:

"County Clerk McCord left last Sunday evening on the 9:16 west bound train for Watseka, Ill., called there by phone by the death of an aged aunt, Miss Susan Little, who died that evening at 6 o'clock. Deceased had been ill over a year with dropsy and lung trouble. Since March, 1898, she had been staying with a sister, Mrs. Cobb, residing 6 miles north of Watseka. The funeral and burial occurred Monday afternoon, at the Armstrong Chapel."

NOTE: Don C. McCord states that John's mother changed his name from John Fremont to John Grant Fremont McCord during the Civil War. He was a farmer and a lawyer and worked in the Attorney General's office for 20 years. In 1900 he lived on Fall Street, Williamsport, IN - per the Census. MARTHA: Martha evidently made a will, as Don C. McCord notes that she left all her possessions to her husband.

a. ESTER ELIZABETH McCORD #1655 b. 27-Jun-1909, WILLIAMSPORT, WARREN CO., IND,<sup>154</sup> NUMB. 3.8.2.1, CHILDREN 0, SINGLE. A letter from Ester McCord to Don C. McCord:

"I am a member of the Daughters of American Revolution through my grandmother's family through John Campell of South Carolina. I never had enough information regarding the McCord family - Irish as they were - and large families. I tried several years to run down my great grandmother - Alice Grant - related to me. My father was John Grant, but I came out a dead end. My dad was first named John Fremont McCord, but his mother changed it to 'Grant' during the Civil War when W.S. Grant was general.

James (great grandfather) - my father always said was born near Girard, Erie Co., Penn - his birthplace was the site, Bethlehem Steel Mills. His parents moved to Huron Co., Ohio when he was young. James was a cabinet maker, soldier, Indian fighter and served through the entire war of 1812 with Andrew Jackson at New Orleans (one of my cousins had his powder horn). The Morris family settled in Ohio near Lake Erie. My great grandmother lived with my father's family when he was a little boy; dad said she sang 1812 war songs to him and told him about the battle on Lake Erie. In 1820 they came to Indiana and settle along White River, where my father could never figure out. In 1824 James rode horse back to Crawfordsville to land office on the old Cordinay road (which is in front of my house) and talked to surveyors. He rode north from there thru wilderness and entered 80 Acres of land. By 1828 he had built a cabin and settled with his family. The Warren Co. history shows his name on the grand jury in 1828.

I decided that McCords are loners and did their 'own' thing. Evidently Pennsylvania was the starting place for early McCord settlers. Each started out on his own from there and being Irish were 'fighters'.

I still have the little rocker that belonged to Hannah McCord - my father said she must have been a little woman and dad said she would rock and smoke her pipe when he was little."

From History of State of Nebraska, Lancaster County - P. 1071 (Samuel T. McCord): "Mr. McCord's father graduated and practiced medicine in Pennsylvania making throat diseases a specialty, and was a captain of the Pennsylvania Volunteers in 1812-13-14, and his grandfathers were both captains of a regiment in the revolutionary war, having risen from the ranks as private." NOTE: Research indicates the doctor was actually Robert's son, Godfrey. From History of Mercer Co., PA - Pymatuning Township - Page 574

"When the War of 1812 commenced, McCord's son Robert raised a company to fight the hereditary foe of his native land. A roster of this company will be found in previous chapter. He was one of the leading pioneers of the valley throughout its early history." On pages 298 & 299 the members of the 135th Pennsylvania Militia organized in 1807 are listed. Robert McCord is a Captain. Robert, or his father, is listed under Pymatuning Township as a Constable in 1809, a supervisor in 1818, an auditor in 1821, 1822, and 1823, an overseer in 1825, and a supervisor in 1828.

From film of pensions for the War of 1812 - per Margery Graham: McCord, Robert, Capt SC 22-017 SC 13-825; wt #11-374-160-55 (he got 160 acres in 1855) He was a Capt. of the 7th Co., 135th reg. PA militia.

From History of Worth County, MO (William McCord):

"Robert, his father, and also his mother, whose name before her marriage was Margaret Carnes, were born in Westmoreland Co., Penna. Robert was born in 1790 and Margaret Carnes was born 7-30-1792. Robert's family moved to Mercer Co., Penna., in 1798 when he was 7 years old and there Robert lived until he came to Missouri in 1864. He served in the War of 1812 and was a Captain. In 1864 he came to Missouri and for six years made his home with his son, William, after which he returned to Pennsylvania. He soon died at the home of his sister (who lives in Ohio almost upon the State line) in 1872, age 82." (Inventory of the estate in Worth County, MO, was made 6-3-1873; per Martha V. McLaughlin)

From Robert's application for Bounty Land he states his discharge papers were destroyed by vermin. William Karns and Andrew Chestnut signed this application as witnesses of Robert's signature. When Robert applied for a pension - July 20, 1871 - he was still living at Oxford, Mo. We are uncertain as to whether he actually died in MO, PA, or Ohio. MARGARET: Margaret was the daughter of Godfrey C. Carnes and Mary McDowell. From Mercer County History - Pymatuning Township - Page 574

"Godfrey Carnes was a veteran of the Revolution, who came from Westmoreland County, Penn., in 1801, and settled upon the farm whereon his grandson, Godfrey G. Carnes, now lives. The title to his first tract was a patent given as a reward for his services in the Revolutionary War. In his trip to his new home he followed Indian trails most of the distance. He erected his cabin on what afterward became the Sharpsville and Orangeville road. In a few years this rude structure was succeeded by what pioneers called a "double log house". This house was the polling place for most of the early elections in Pymatuning Township.

Mr. Carnes Mr. Carnes was a leading Democrat, a very successful pioneer, and accumulated a large estate. He died in 1842." time treated of (Approximately 1800 - 1825) there were numerous Indians in the vicinity. They belonged to what was called the Corn planter tribe, named from a chief by that title, and were, in all probability, a remnant of the nation of Senecas. Mr. Carnes found an encampment of them upon his land when he arrived. They were never troublesome, in a belligerent sense, though their presence in the vicinity often used to account for the absence of many of the settlers' valuables. It is related that they would come to Mr. Carnes and request the privilege of using his rifle a few moments. If granted, they would take the weapon, set off into the forest, be gone a day or two, and return, carrying with them a large deer in payment for the loan of the gun. A tradition exists to the effect that near the mouth of what is known as the Big Run, they had concealed a valuable lead mine, from which they used to stealthily extract quantities of the metal, smelt it, and dispose of it to the settlers, wh used it for bullets." Page 904:

"Godfrey Carnes, a native of Westmoreland County, Penn., and of German extraction, settled in Mercer County in 1801, on the place where his grandson, Godfrey G., now resides, in Pymatuning Township. He purchased first 200 acres and subsequently added several hundred more. He was a Revolutionary soldier and served through the entire war. He married Mary McDowell, and reared twelve children: Edward, William, Robert, George, Samuel, John, Margaret, married Robert McCord; Mary, married Samuel Ingram, and died; Jane, married Samuel Ingram as his second wife; James, Elizabeth, married George Snyder; Ruhanneh, married Henderson Turner, all of whom are dead but Mrs. Ingram of Kentucky. He was one of the enterprising men of that day, was a Democrat and held many of the township offices. His wife died in 1839 and he in 1842."

Per Martha V. McLaughlin: "I visited Oakwood Cemetery and saw Godfrey's marker. In the center of a circle, which is 25 or 30 feet across, is a tall monument with the name "Carnes" on it. Around it are several low markers where members of the family are buried."

WILLIAM died 7-Apr-1898, GRANT CITY, WORTH CO., MO,<sup>176</sup> CHILDREN 9, MISSOURI. From the 2nd Edition of the Worth County, MO, History (1954):

"William McCord, a substantial farmer and stock raiser of Greene Township, who resides on Sec. 19, Twp. 65, Range 32, is a native of Mercer Co., Penn., where he was born Aug. 9, 1824. Robert McCord, his father, and also his mother, whose name before her marriage was Margaret Carnes, were born in Westmoreland Co., Penn. Robert was born in 1790 and Margaret Carnes was born 7-30-1792. Robert's family moved to Mercer Co., Penn., in 1798 when he was 7 years old and there Robert lived until he came to Missouri in 1864. He served in the War of 1812 and was a Captain. In 1864 he came to Missouri and for six years made his home with his son, William, after which he returned to Pennsylvania. He soon died at the home of his sister (who lives in Ohio almost upon the State line) in 1872, aged 82. The early life of William was spent in working on the farm and attending the common schools. After becoming of age, he learned the blacksmith trade, at which he worked for 5 years. May 8, 1854, his marriage to Miss Eliza Jane Carmichael, daughter of John and Margaret Garvin Carmichael, occurred in Mercer Co., Penn., where Mrs. McCord was born. They have a family of nine children: (Margaret, Elizabeth, Rachel, Ellen, Robert, John, Cora, Julia, Flora and Olive. Julia and Flora died when quite young and Robert was killed when about 19 years old.) Mr. McCord lived in Mercer County until coming to Missouri in the fall of 1864 and locating in Greene Twp. He has over 900 acres of land, mostly fenced, and which is in two farms. Both have good improvements and a bearing orchard."

Per Martha V. McLaughlin:

"When my grandfather, William McCord, came to Missouri in the fall of 1864, he had 5 children and his father came with them. The children were Margaret J., Elizabeth, Rachel Ellen (my mother), Robert, and John C. John C. was only a few months old, Robert was about 3, Rachel Ellen 5, Elizabeth 7 and Margaret J. was 9. Aunt Mertie, Uncle John's wife, says that Grandfather loaded the boat with their teams and wagons plus household goods at Erie, Penna. But in the obituary of Grandfather in the Worth County Times, it states that their boat was loaded at Pittsburgh. At any rate they came down the Ohio River to its mouth, then up the Mississippi to St. Louis. From there they came by train as far as Macon, Mo., where they loaded their belongings in their two wagons (for which Grandmother had made covers) and drove the rest of the way to Worth County. Grandfather and his father, Robert, had been here in Worth County earlier and bought 579 acres of land from Thomas Jacks for $8,106 ($14 per acre). All of this land lay in Greene Twp., Worth Co., and was bought by Robert McCord. (Our old home place of 120 acres was a part of this 579 and was given to Mother by her father, Wm. McCord.)

In 1867, Grandfather made an agreement with his father, Robert McCord, whereby Grandfather agreed to give his father a home and all expenses the rest of his life. In return Grandfather got all the land Robert owned - Grandfather agreed to pay the other children (James, Samuel and Elizabeth Kimble) $200 each - the amount due them on a previous settlement.

The above mentioned Thomas Jacks was Aunt Mertie's grandfather. (Mertie Jacks married John C. McCord, son of William.)

In 1872 Grandfather (Wm) McCord bought the farm where Wm Penney now lives, just west of Oxford School. They moved there in the fall of 1872, when mother was 13 years old. They continued farming the farm where they first lived and Mother always referred to it as the upper place. (The Penney farm is bottom land) At the time of Grandfather's death, 4-7-1898, they were living in Oxford in the house now owned by the heirs of Mr. Clarence Wood.

Following is the agreement made between William and his father, Robert McCord, Jr.:

The following eulogy written by E. S. Garver appeared in the Worth County Time, Grant City, MO, April 21, 1898:

In another column of this paper will be found an obituary of William McCord, who died at Oxford, this County, on the 7th instant. We first became acquainted with Mr. McCord in the fall of 1874, and having both came from the same state, a mutual friendship sprang up between us that continued until his eyes were closed to the beauties of this world forever and his familiar voice was hushed in the awful silence of death. We always prized his friendship because it came from his heart. There was no deception in him and his word was his bond. He was a man of strong convictions and could not be swerved from what he considered his line of duty. He combated error with truth and was rarely mistaken in judgment. Mr.

McCord was one of the original incorporators of this paper when it was first started in the month of February, 1873, and he always remained its warm supporter and friend. In his death the Community has lost one of its best citizens whose place can not be easily filled.

Following is the obituary that appeared in the same paper.

William McCord was born in Mercer County, PA, August 9, 1824. Two years ago as he was getting ready to attend Circuit Court at Grant City, he was stricken with paralysis and never recovered perfect control of his right side. On the evening of April 7, 1898, the flame of life that had been burning but dimly since the stroke, went out. Had he lived until August 9th, he would have been 74 years old. His father, Robert McCord, was born in Westmoreland County, PA, and moved to Mercer County when he was 7 years old. (?) He was Captain of a Company in the War of 1812, and helped to prepare the ships for the action in which Commodore Perry gained his great naval victory on Lake Erie. There was a call for men to fight on the ships and his company stepped out to a man. He emigrated with his son William McCord and family to this county in 1864. They loaded two teams and wagons with their household goods, on a boat at Pittsburg, PA, went down the Ohio River to its mouth, then up the Mississippi to St. Louis. The boat's crew were in continual dread of being fired upon by the bushwhackers from the Kentucky side, and at several places were afraid to land. At St. Louis they loaded their goods on the cars for St. Joseph, but on arriving at Macon City, the authorities refused to take them any farther. They unloaded, hitched their teams to the wagons, and came overland the rest of the way to this county. They bought a farm of about 579 acres of Thomas Jacks for which they paid $8106. (The record at the Court House in Grant City substantiates this and shows Robert paid in cash.) Robert McCord went back to Pennsylvania on a visit and died in his 83rd year.

William McCord was married to Eliza Jane Carmichael in 1854. From this union, nine children were born, 6 of whom are living. He became one of our most prosperous farmers and accumulated 1300 acres of the best lands in this section of the County. By allowing others to use his name he lost about all of his savings. The past year has been an eventful one for the old settlers. Of the men that carved the beautiful homes in this County out of the wilderness, many have been called to their long homes. ELIZA: Was living with daughter Olive and son-in-law Harry O. Winslow in 1900 census Worth Co, Green Twp. A "T.G. Carmichael" of Oxford, MO, stated in Robert (William's father) McCord's pension application that he had known Robert McCord for 30 years. This was in 1871 - so he knew him before he moved to Missouri in 1864. Is this a brother of Eliza's? Eliza's parents were John and Margaret (Garvin) Carmichael.

4. ROBERT T. McCORD #49 b. 2-May-1862, MERCER CO.PA, NUMB. 4.5.4, d. 17-Apr-1881, WORTH CO, MO. Was coming home from a dance and got in a fight across the road from the house his brother John C. built near Oxford. He was hit with a shovel & died. Sam McAtee served two years in Prison for the crime, but it is believed by many that another man committed the murder and paid McAtee for serving the sentence. His name is Henry Harris and he is buried at Oxford - but no marker. His daughter is Mrs. Charles Buholt and lives at Ravenwood, MO. From Grant City Star, Grant City, Mo, April 28, 1881:

DEAD AND BURIED We mentioned in a few lines last week, that Robert McCord of Green Twp. had been severely injured by being struck on the head with a wagon hammer by Samuel McAtee of the same Township. It is our sad duty this week to chronicle his death which occurred on Thursday morning last. Several different stories are in circulation, some going to show that McAtee acted in self defense when he struck the fatal blow. Others, which if true, will go hard upon the young man's case. It seems that between the drug store and saloon at Oxford liquor can always be obtained and that a number of the young men of the vicinity are in the habit of spending their Sundays at that place drinking and carousing. This was the case a week ago last Sunday the day upon which McCord received the blow that resulted in his death.

In the evening McAtee and a young man named Harris accompanied by two young ladies started for church in a wagon. We are informed that both of the boys were more or less under the influence of liquor and that after proceeding some distance were overtaken by McCord who was in the same condition. McCord got into the wagon and commenced conducting himself insultingly toward the young ladies and a quarrel ensued between him and young Harris. Here the different accounts commence to conflict some telling that after his quarrel with Harris, McCord drew a knife and commenced chasing McAtee around the wagon, who getting out the wagon hammer turned and struck a blow; others that McAtee obtaining the hammer went some distance toward the place where McCord and Harris were fighting and meeting McCord, struck him. At any rate, there is a grave, a bereaved family and a young man tremblingly awaiting the action of a court that shall decide the degree of his criminality.

John built a house near Oxford, MO, which still stands. The woodwork is said to be quite beautiful. John was named for John Crittenden who was responsible for the Crittenden Compromise which would have allowed the Southern states to continue slavery, while making slavery illegal in the Northern states. Since his parents moved to Missouri during the Civil War we wonder if their move had anything to do with the slavery issue. MERTIE: Mertie was the daughter of John M. Jacks and Prudence Marshall. She is buried next to them and they are buried next to Prudence's father, Robert Marshall. Mertie's mother died when she was born and she was raised by her uncle (?), Lewis Willhite. Mertie was a tiny lady who had been quite pretty when young. She had extremely long white hair which she kept braided in a bun (at 70+ years). She fed her grandchildren "sugar bread"-bread, butter & white sugar. Mertie's husband, John, had built a fine home near Oxford, MO; but she unwillingly left it to travel with him trying to find a climate in which he would feel healthier. After leaving Missouri, they lived in Colorado, New Mexico, Kansas, and Montana. Much of their traveling was done by covered wagon. Her son, Sherman, tells that hunger was not unknown and one of his brothers died due to starvation. During these travels Mertie bore 13 children. Martin said that she always wanted to go back home to Missouri. When her husband died in Montana, Sherman, her oldest son, was instructed to move them back to Missouri as soon as possible. He did. My dad, Clark, tells that for the trip they had loaded the cattle and household goods into box cars and shipped them by rail. One person was allowed to ride free in each box car - but they had to be over 16. My dad was only 10 but he rode in one and hoped for the best. At Kansas he was asked how old he was. He stated, "Sixteen" and was allowed to go on. (Above written by Lorraine McCord Dundon).

MARGARET died 17-Apr-1990, KANSAS CITY, MO, CHILDREN 0. Margaret was named for her aunt. She was very pretty when young. As I remember her she was short with a little extra weight. She always called her hair "Titian blond" - due to the red highlights - even after it was white. She didn't have children, but always felt her responsibility as the oldest daughter. She was the one who would have big family dinners on holidays. She and Lincoln had a nice brick home near Kansas City with a huge dining room. She loved her family treasures and would enjoy telling where each one came from. She was also willing to fight other family members to attain them. Margaret always had a little rat terrier and each one was named "Peggy". She drove her car long past the time she turned 80, but had to give it up after being in an accident backing down the freeway offramp. She showed my daughter a doll once that she had received from her grandmother when she was just a small child. It was beautiful and still in it's original box. She told of playing dolls with her brother, Ellison, and sitting each doll around her little table for tea - but not this one because it was special.

After her husband died, Margaret moved closer in to Kansas City. If you dropped in unexpectedly, she would always want to feed you. Seemed she always had a pot roast and mashed potatoes to heat up - sometimes we wondered how old they were.

Margaret was part of the Eastern Star and a great source of pride was having been "Worthy Matron". She always had some rather elegant clothes to wear for special events.

Lester was probably named for his older cousin, John Lester Adams. Following written by Lorraine McCord Dundon - Lester's brother Clark's daughter.

Lester often came to visit us while I was growing up. He was a cowboy in Montana for many years. He later bought a farm in Southern Missouri close to Bagnall Dam. When they would let the dam out his crops would be flooded. I remember being able to row a boat over the tops of the corn. He was well read and could use big words. My mother once admonished him - teasingly - for saying "I capitulate" when playing a game of Monopoly with us girls. He never married, but sometimes had a girlfriend. One time he told my mom he was going away, but would be back with a "surprise". We were quite sure he went to get a wife - but came back deflated. He moved to Southern Missouri for the warmer climate and "his lady". He gave her a diamond ring but nothing came of it. She had dogs in the circus.

After their dad (John Crittenden McCord) died and left the ranch to all of his children. Lester took care of it and owned an adjoining property. When he sold it all the lawyers who took care of the division were: Roland V. Colgrave & Bruce M. Brown, 14 North 9th St., Miles City, Montana. The property location was Custer County, Township 6 North, Range 54 East, Section 14: S 1/2.

Lester would take care of my dad's farm when our family went on a rare vacation. He was always dependable. His only objectionable habit was increasing the volume of his voice as he talked. If you were in the next room you might think he was mad. But he was only getting more excited - and louder - as he talked. I don't remember him ever actually being angry. He could take teasing well and his nieces - including Mary and Norma McDowell - could dish it out. He would just smile and chuckle a little.

Lester had numerous books - many of the on Rosecrucian. He was well read and had an opinion on most subjects. One of my friends when I was around 20 was very impressed with his knowledge.

He was killed in an auto accident when a teenager. Sherman and Dorothy would often visit our family and we always enjoyed them - especially Dorothy's quick wit. Sherman was always good at carpentry and helped my Dad a great deal in building our new house. He is a rather quiet man but I especially enjoyed one story he told. He was clearing land - getting rid of tree stumps. When he went to dynamite a tree stump that was close to the house, he carefully put his car in the garage first. When blowing up, a chunk of the tree flew up in the air, down through the garage roof, and dented his car!

Olive often visited our home, although she lived in Kansas City, Mo, - 100 miles away. She was a beautiful woman and we girls always enjoyed her feminine touches - bag of cosmetics, lotions and jewelry. She was a great dancer and tried to teach me - with no luck. I was her goddaughter and she was, I thought, my "Fairy Godmother". She always worked in an office and had a small apartment. I remember staying with her and the highlight was a trip to the ice cream parlor where we had an ice cream soda - my first. Another first was when she fixed filet mignon - wrapped in bacon no less! - for our family. She always seemed so sophisticated yet loving. I don't remember her having ever been married, but I do remember one boyfriend. He worked for Kraft Candy Co. and brought us a bunch of chewy candy. We were very popular on the school bus next day. Later in life Olive became obsessed that the "Browns" were out to get her. She began a series of moves - each time to find the "Browns" had moved in next door. Someone - probably the "Browns" - put itching dust on her chair at work. After she retired, Olive went to Montana to stay with her brother Lester. She felt she could help him out as he was getting older and alone. The only business in 20 miles or more was a small store/post office. Olive thought Alice, the postmistress, was snooping around their house so she took a gun to the post office and threatened her. Being a federal offence, Olive was committed. She was later released with the agreement that she would leave Montana and not return. She came back to Missouri - but would live out of her car. She spent her last few years in a rest home (Caldwell Manor) in Kansas City.

(2) 1992, in ARKANSAS, ARMARIE CLARK #4798, NUMB. 4.5.5.12S2. CLARK CHILDREN 3. Clark is a veteran of WWII. He was wounded in Italy and received the Purple Heart. Clark is now retired - but owned about 300 acres near Ravenwood, MO, which he farmed, along with raising cattle. Clark's middle name is only B. - there is no registered meaning for it. He was named after the Doctor who delivered him. It is said that the doctor's wife's name was Blanche and John & Mertie gave him the B. for her. My dad, Clark McCord, was born in Kansas but the family moved to Montana when he was just tiny. He lived there until he was around 10 and they moved to Parnell, MO, where he graduated from high school. He was a very good basketball player for the school. Around 1940 Clark went to California, worked there, met my mom, married, and went into the Army for World War II. After the war they rented a farm near Galesburg, IL, - my mom's birthplace. In 1950 they bought a farm near Ravenwood, MO - about 20 miles from where his grandfather and great-grandfather - William and Robert McCord - had purchased land in 1864. Due to his thrifty "Scotch" nature, he was able to add another farm a few years later. Also due to his thriftiness, we never had an indoor bathroom - except for the white pot with the red rim in the winter.

Clark is about 5'10" tall, had dark brown hair - mostly gone or gray now, and blue eyes. He is a rather quiet man, but always loves playing a good joke on someone. Once in response to an encyclopedia salesmans goading, he solemnly agreed that his sixteen-year-old daughter could certainly make good use of his product - but first she had to learn how to read!

During the summer my dad would hire young men - 16 to 18 - to help with the haying. Mom would always prepare a huge dinner (lunch) for them. One particularly timid boy was trying to get seconds on the fried chicken. Every time he would extend his fork toward the serving plate, my dad would poke his hand with HIS fork! Never a smile on his face! Poor kid probably went hungry that afternoon.

My parents were divorced a few years ago and my dad has recently remarried. They are currently building a new home in Blue Springs, MO, near Kansas City.

Written by Olive Lorraine McCord Dundon GERTHRUDE: "Trudy" is the daughter of Victoria Carolina Nelson and Charles Johnson. Victoria came from Sweden at the age of 18. Charlie's ancestors were also from Sweden. My mom, Trudy, is 5'0" tall and weighs 100 lbs. maybe. She was the smallest of her family of 11 children. She made some of the highest grades in high school. This fact was amazing as she had to work the full time as a babysitter/housekeeper in order to live with a family close to the school. Her own parents lived too far out in the country and there was no transportation. Around 1940 Trudy and 3 of her sisters went to California from Illinois in one sister's car. They all went to work, met their husbands, and married.

Mom has always been very active - both physically and mentally. She still - at over 70 - mows her sisters huge lawn and can tire anyone out just watching her go. She loves crossword puzzles and can always figure out how to fix anything. She also loves to gab and is capable of producing some of the lengthiest, newsiest letters.

Mom and dad were both thrifty people and we girls usually had to wear each dress ( of which we had about 3 to 5 ) to school twice in a week and had a special clean one for Sunday. The limit on Christmas spending was $10 per child. We never considered ourselves "poor" - everyone else did the same.

Mom always enjoyed entertaining and we girls were always welcome to have the MYF group and our friends come over. She and dad spent many evenings playing pitch or penoche or square dancing. Dad's brothers and sisters often visited us. Mom's family lived too far away - but would come once in a while. Some of mom's beliefs were: you should never drive over 40 mph, a women shouldn't have to milk the cows, and her daughters were capable of anything.

When trying to think of a family tradition, the thing I remember most is Saturday nights. First we would have lunch meat sandwiches for supper - a treat compared to our usual fare of steak or chicken; next were Saturday night baths in the tin tub - but ours was definitely superior to others being the 5' long variety rather than the small round kind. Baths meant heating the water, bringing in the tub, hanging a rug in the doorway to keep the warmth in and for privacy, and then each taking turns, youngest to oldest, with an addition of hot water before each one. After bathing and washing hair we would turn on the T.V. which we purchased when I was 10 (1957), and watch "Gunsmoke" at 8 p.m. and eat banana splits. Those included all the toppings - mom would even make hot fudge! What a delightful evening!

He moved to Marshall Co., IA, in 1874. He enlisted in 1864 in Co. I, 11th Minn. Reg. and was in service for 11 months. Member Methodist Church and a Democrat. His farm East of Hiram's 1 mile, across from the old Shady Oaks property, North Hwy 30 west RR tracks where the old Lincoln Highway turns toward Marshalltown." While in Ohio, Howard McCord referenced and recorded close association with his uncle William McCord and finally found him and Hiram following William and Barbara's children to Marshall County. This kinship continues on through the children, i.e. George C. and Eleanor often visited the Jessup, IA, area; Robert and Hiram named sons George after William's son - Marshall County's sheriff.

We have Robert's pension papers showing he served in the Civil War from 9/1/1864 to 6/6/1865. He applied for the pension in 1897 due to rheumatism, heart disease, piles and disease of the kidneys. At that time he was a resident of Marshalltown, Marshall Co., IA. He went to live with his son, Henry A. McCord on April 1, 1899, and was in very poor health. Statements included in the pension records were made by Henry and his wife Helen McCord and Charles A. Wescott, who had lived in the same block for 15 years with Robert, and A.C. Sharp, who had lived within two blocks of Robert for 25 years. Robert lived at 409 West State Street, Marshalltown, IA, and his widow, Julia, remained there after his death.

Robert C. McCord is mentioned in the 1925 Fillmore Co., Minn., History: p. 298 - Civil War veteran. p. 545 - one of the founders of Spring Valley Masonic Lodge in 1866. p. 600 - Bloomfield Twp. officers listed in 1858 as collector. He is also found in the 1912 Fillmore County History Vol. 1 on p. 325 as an early officer of Bloomfield Twp. JULIA: Julia is described in Robert's pension papers at age 63 - after Robert's death - as: "a weakly frail woman and is not able to do any kind of work and is a very nervous temperament and is not able to do any kind of work as she is old and feeble." She was applying for a widow's pension at the time. In this application a Lucinda McCord signs a statement swearing that Julia is Robert's widow. I don't know who this Lucinda could be, unless she is their daughter that we have as Lucy.

HENRY A. MCCORD

" Henry A. McCord, living retired in Omaha, enjoying a rest which should ever follow years of intense and well directed business activity, came to Nebraska in 1879 from Marshall County, Iowa. He was born in Minnesota in 1857 and was twenty-three years of age when he took up his abode in Burt county, Nebraska, where he turned his attention to farming and to the feeding and raising of stock. His business affairs in that connection were wisely and successfully managed and he was regarded as one of the prominent representatives of agricultural interests in his section of the state. He continued actively in that line of business until January, 1908, when he sold his land and all other interests in Burt county and came to Omaha, where he has since made his home. He purchased some lots and also erected bungalows, including four on Twentieth and Pratt streets. In fact he has improved several pieces of property which have added to the value and attractiveness of adjacent real estate and he still has large realty holdings in Omaha, from which he derives a most gratifying annual income. His investments have been most judiciously placed, providing him with all the comforts and many of the luxuries of life. In 1912 he erected an attractive home at No. 6119 Florence Boulevard and he now gives his entire attention to the further development of the property and grounds, having two acres on which he is cultivating gardens and raising flowers. This constitutes both his occupation and his diversion at the present time and he is making of his place one of the beauty spots of Omaha.

Mr. McCord was united in marriage to Miss Helen C. Plummer, who came from Iowa to Nebraska in February, 1882. They attend the United Presbyterian church and in the social circles of the city occupy an enviable position. Mr. McCord's life history is an inspiring one, showing what may be accomplished through determined and intelligently directed purpose and energy, and the qualities which he has cultivated and developed are such as have gained for him the enduring respect, regard and friendship of those with whom he has been associated."

In Henry's father's pension papers is a statement made by Henry showing that his father, Robert C. McCord, was in very poor health and came to live with Henry on April 1, 1899, in Oakland, Burt County, NE.

HOWARD died 3-Aug-1974, MARSHALLTOWN, MARSHALL CO., IA, BUR PLEASANT HILL CEM,LEGRAND,MARSHALL CO,IA, CHILDREN 3. Howard Elmer (Emmett) McCord, CMDR USN -RET The following from Howard McCord, Jr., regarding his father:

"A run-everywhere cure for his early arthritis resulted in his becoming the fourth best cross country runner in Iowa. Upon graduation of HS, and unable to get an appointment to the Naval Academy, Howard entered the Naval submarine service where he qualified in submarines and Hard Hat Diver achieving the rate of torpedoman 1/C. Astmatic problems caused him to leave the navy in 1940 until the outbreak of WWII. Graduating from one of the Merchant Marine Academies with a Reserve Commission he worked for Alcolea Steamship Lines. He was at Normandy, going ashore with one of the early assault waves to set up platforms for anti-aircraft guns. At the end of WWII, Howard became Superintendent of Maintenance for Charles City Schools. Leaving that in 1948, he became Electrical Maintenance Supervisor for the MN and Saint Louis Railroad until he retired due to health in 1969."

VERA: Vera is the daughter of Demitri Dzeckwicz and Mary Pavlona Revaska. Revaska means fisherman. Her father, a Cossack, had fought in the Russia-Japanese war Demitri means George. He was known as the 10th son, collaged and former Czarist, teacher, soldier who suffered in a Japanese concentration camp (Russia & Japan). Well educated, he and his family fled Russia, went to Siberia and Argentina to escape being targeted by the Socialist Communist revolution. Most changed their names to hide. Research may be impossible. Strangely Paul Revaska, his father-in-law, was the exact opposite - and the family's "black sheep". Caught up in the Socialism spirit he came to America to head, organize and recruit. He was strongly opposed by the large family community in Enlightown, N.J. May have been a big part of media recruitment in the '20's. As the lore goes he was rewarded with the commisar position of Changar, Russia, and died just before Hitler came avoiding family disgrace which was, normally, hanging for leaders.

Extra Note: Vera's father was a very abused person but equally a life-time foe of Paul Revaska's.

"William Jennings was born in Carroll Co., Ohio, October 11, 1835, and departed this life April 25, 1922, aged 86 years, 6 months, and eleven days. He was the son of Peter and Catherine Jennings who were among the early settlers in the community.

In 1843 he came with his parents to DeKalb co., and was here reared and educated.

He assisted his father in the pioneer work of that early day, which consisted of felling the trees, clearing up the land and then in the cultivation of the soil.

He also served an apprenticeship at the carpenter trade and has since worked at it in connection to farming.

In 1860 he settled on the farm on which he spent the remainder of his life, some 62 years.

May 1, 1859, he was married to Miss Anna McCord. The fruits of this union were six children, three sons, and three daughters, one son and one daughter have preceeded him in death.

On April 25, 1918, his wife with whom he had been permitted to live for 59 years, more than a half century, departed this life preceeding his in death by four years to the day. Father Jennings was a quiet industrious man, a kind father, good neighbor and most highly esteemed by all who knew him.

He leaves to mourn their loss, two sons and two daughters, Hiram, Olive, Eldora McClellan and Jacob, also one grandchild, Glen B. and one brother Abraham with other relatives and friends by whom he will be greatly missed. The burial services were conducted by Rev. Estell of Lagrange."

WALKER died 1881, BOSCOBEL, GRANT CO, WI, <sup>246</sup> BUR BOSCOBEL CEMETARY, BOSCOBEL, WI, CHILDREN 9, Settled in Boscobel, WI, in 1847. There are many questions as to whether Walker had one or two wives and what their names were. Hopefully, a descendant will do more research on this and let us know. In the 1850 Census, the wife's name is Jane b. 1803 Ohio; but in 1860 it's Jennett b. 1804 Ohio, 1870 Jennette b. 1806 Ohio, 1880 Genett b. 1804 Ohio - parents from Ireland and PA. I believe he may have had only one wife, Jennett. We're uncertain of her last name. In a Civil War Pension file for Madison Ward husband of Walker's daughter Rosanna, is a statement signed by "Jennet McCord" stating that she was the midwife at the birth of Rosanna's four children beginning in 1851. Also on Rosanna's marriage certificate to Edgar Ward her mother's name is given as "Jennet McCord".

2/1/94: I have changed our records to show only Jennet as Walker's wife. The Grant Co., WI, Marriages Pre 1859 shows David's marriage to Elizabeth Gardner listing his parents as Walker and Jennet.

From Lorna Walters:

"My father (William Andrew) must have been about 12 years old when his father, Ben F., died and he was bound out to a brother and sister, Peter and Kate Flynn. He was to have an education - which he never got - and a team of horses when he was 21. He had to sue to get the horses. At one time I had the transcript of that trial but destroyed it before I realized its value.

I don't remember much about my father when I was growing up though he did come back a couple of times at Christmas. I must have been 10 or maybe older when he wrote that he had married again. Ethel took over and wrote to me sometimes. After I began teaching and had my own money - must have been about 1925 or 26 - I spent a couple of weeks with them in Mobridge, S. Dak. He was foreman of a railroad crew and she cooked for the crew. Their camp was a series of freight cars on a siding. They had adopted a little Russian girl whose parents didn't want her and willingly gave her up. She grew up with them and served in the Marines in telecommunications until retirement and Bill says she is now living in Hawaii and doesn't care to communicate which surprises me as she grew up with Bill. She never did write to me but was always a comfort to them.

My father came to visit a couple of times after I was married, the first time in the 40's. I was in the hospital having had my appendix out. I didn't see much of him that time but Edwin took him to hunt up people he remembered and places he had been. He got acquainted with his grandchildren. By the time he came the second time he had 3 great-grandchildren. It was then he gave me the little family information that I had. I guess when they retired from the railroad that's where they wound up - Oregon. He broke his hip in the spring of 1957 and was in the hospital in Sacramento, CA. I flew out to see him. I think he lived about a year or so after that. Ethel was having a bad time herself but managed to see him thru'. Not long after his passing she was in the hospital herself with leukemia - she didn't last long. She has surely earned her place in heaven."

From Bill McCord:

"Dad was a foreman of a bridge gang for the Milwaukee railroad when they started bumping people back in '29. His last job before they got rid of him in 1931 was running a pump house in Miles City, Montana. My mother moved to Oregon with us kids in 1929 knowing the handwriting was on the wall. Dad joined us after he was laid off."

"Way back before one of the depressions - 1906 - or something Dad had a homestead in Baker, Montana, and lost it all with a combination of the depression and a hot wind that laid the wheat down. My mother said he had done real good for several years and went out and bought a steam engine and separator so he could do custom work as well as his own. That year no wheat harvest and the bells bailed up. So - my folks lost everything and had to start from scratch." BARBARA: From Lorna Walters: "She (my mother, Barbara) was building a fire with kerosene and wearing an outing flannel wrapper and the two didn't mix - or mixed too well. My dad told me they took me off the bed through a window." Don C. McCord shows Barbara's parents as John Burris and Melissa Duell.

From Bill McCord 11/9/92: "I went in the Navy on my 17th birthday and got out in 1946.... The Navy called me back in 1950 and I was sent to Japan. I was divorced after I got home in 1952 and stupidly remarried her again in 1953... I retired from the Air Force 01 March 1970 and went to work as a Civilian Instructor at Keesler AFB, MS, then transferred to F.A.A. and retired in December 1983. Moved back to Oregon in 1985." Regarding his unusual middle name Bill wrote 11/20/92:

"My mother filled out an affidavit for my birth certificate in 1942. My middle name was suppose to have been Asa or something like that. A friend of my mother and dad's when they both were working for the railroad. He had been killed in a train wreck. The notary stamping the paper mashed the paper at the point where my middle name was, she mailed it off to South Dakota and it came back William Acy McCord - so that's it."

Bill "was a Boatswain Mate (LCVP Coxswain - ran 36' landing craft) during WWII stationed on a LST. Called back in Korean and worked in Boat Yard repairing the Landing craft. 1952 enlisted in the Air Force and went through Electronic course. Stayed at Keesler three years teaching Basic Electronics, returned in 1968 teaching again. After retiring (1970) another year as civilian instructor. Radar maintenance and installation in both the Air Force and Federal Aviation Agency, also computer maintenance in FAA, retired from FAA in December, 1983."

Bill has a notebook computer along with a much larger stationary one. He uses these primarily for writing books. He states, "The one novel I finished was about car racing and romance. The two I'm working on now, the one almost finished would fall in the romantic line. The one that is half finished is about cutting down the trees, that is the clear cutting raping of our forest so we end up with a few scrawny pines like they have down south after Georgia Pacific stripped all the forest there."

Through correspondence with Bill, I (Lorraine McCord Dundon) feel that he typifies the McCords I have known - highly intelligent with a variety of interests, friendly, love for his family, and an honorable background that includes both teaching and service to his country. In one of his letters I also picked up a trait that it seems many of us have inherited from our Scottish ancestors. In one of his letters he shared with me a source for inexpensive ribbons for my printer. Then he stated, "Of course now I re-ink my own ribbons and that really saves." Doesn't that sound just like a McCord?

SONJA: Per Bill McCord: "I met Sonja in Germany, dated her while she was working in France. She was a Jazz Singer at the time. I was stationed in Germany and so we would have had to gone through the Germany law to get married. She grew up under the Nazi Occupation and hated the Germans and would have nothing to do with them or getting married in Germany. I was sent on temporary duty to Iran so she came down there and we got married in Teheran, Iran, 11/11/67. You could say it was an international romance."

At the time Bill met Sonja she "was a Swedish citizen with a Swedish passport. She ... spoke Danish; Swedish; Norwegian; German; English and enough French to get by, same with Finish."

When Sonja became a U.S. citizen, her name was shortened to Sonja Louise McCord. She had a stroke in April, 1989, and, being totally disabled, is currently in a nursing home.

However, both the 1860 and 1880 Grant Co., WI, Censuses show his birthplace as Mercer Co., PA. ELIZABETH: Per Don C. McCord: Elizabeth married a man with the last name of Hunter after David's death. Don also refers to the the Grant Co., WI Courthouse Records in stating Elizabeth at one time went by the name Elizabeth E. Fairbank. I have recently found that the Hunter that Elizabeth married was William Hunter, who's first wife, Hannah McCord, was David's sister! Hannah died January 13, 1884, and David died January 14, 1884! Their spouses married on March 31, 1884! After William Hunter died in 1900 Elizabeth received a pension of $12 a month, but received this for the last time on March 15, 1908, because she remarried. Perhaps this was the Fairbanks? (All above information taken from William Hunter pension record.)

"Mrs. E.E. Hunter visited relatives in Everly, Iowa,-- returned home."

Hannah is sometimes shown as Benjamin Franklin's daughter because she was on the 1870 census with him and his family. However, we're quite sure she was Walker's daughter as she is with him on the 1860 census. Walker is named as her father in Grant Co. Marriages. Barbara Rector, who has been researching another line of Hunters, sent me a few quotes from the Boscobel Dial about our Hunters. Among them was an article dated July 11, 1889: "William Hunter and father-in-law John McCord quarrel."

I think it should have said brother-in-law. WILLIAM: William served in the Civil War as private, Company B, 3rd Regiment, 41st Inf. enrolled August 9, 1862, at Lawrence, Massachusetts, and mustered out June 28, 1865. After Hannah died, he married her brother David's wife, Elizabeth E. (Gardner) McCord (7.25). William's parents: William and Margaret Hunter - both born in Ireland. (From William Hunter's pension records) Barbara Rector copied the following obituary from the Boscobel Dial - March, 1900: "William Hunter died 23 March 1900, age 65. Was born in Massachusetts in 1846. First wed Hannah McCord and second, Elizabeth E. McCord."

Thomas Gill is listed in the Mercer County History in 1824 as a Pymatuning Township supervisor.

From information furnished by Howard McCord:

Thomas Gill was born in 1793 in Washington County, Pennsylvania, and came to Pymatuning Township, Mercer County, Pennsylvania, and settled on 200 acres of ground 2 3/4 miles north of Sharpsville in 1816.

Thomas learned the cabinet makers trade from his father-in-law, Robert McCord. In politics, he was a whig. He belonged to the Old Seceder Church of the Presbyterian faith.

In a survey, September 4, 1819, Thomas Gill and Andrew Chestnut received a warrant (C-63-281 Number 84) for 272 acres 136 purchase allowance in pursuance of actual settlement Pat. March 24, 1829, on warrant to accept March, 1829.

Thomas Gill served as a private in the War of 1812 under Captain Thomas McMillen. He was discharged at Erie, Pennsylvania, on the 11th day of February, 1814.

Thomas Gill was about 5 feet 7 1/2 inches tall, had brown curly hair, blue eyes and a fair complexion.

On the 25th day of May 1878 Rachel McCord Gill at the age of 78 years applied for and received a widows pension for her husband's service in the War of 1812.

On April 2, 1855, Rachel McCord Gill applied for and received a land warrant at the age of 55 for service of Thomas Gill in the War of 1812.

The following regarding James Burnley Gill is taken from the 1909 Mercer County History - page 169: "James B. Gill whose term on the board of the Mercer County Commissioners expired on the first Monday of January, 1909, was a substantial retired farmer of Pymatuning Township. Born on the third day of January 1847, he is the son of Thomas and Rachel (McCord) Gill, also natives of Pennsylvania. Thomas, who was born in the last decade of the eighteenth century learned the cabinet-makers trade with his father-in-law and soon after his marriage in 1816 purchased a farm of one hundred acres in Pymatuning Township on which he spent the remainder of his life.

Fourteen children were born to this union, of who two are living: James B. Prudence, now Mrs. J.H. Kidd.

The parents are of Scotch-Irish descent and members of the old Seceder Church. The father was an old-time Whig and served in the war of 1812. He died on October 19, 1849, in the fifty-sixth year of his age, his widow passing away on July 3, 1886.

Mr. Gill of this biography was married June 27, 1867, to Matilda Hannah, daughter of George D. and Mary Jane (McMurray) Hofsie of Pymatuning Township and the young people settled on the old homestead, which the husband afterward purchased and upon which he resided until a comparatively recent date. (Following is a list of the James B. Gill's children and a sentence regarding the status of each one. These have been included as messages attached to each child.)

'Valley Farm' of which Mr. Gill is the owner, consists of about three hundred acres of land and is among the attractive and valuable homesteads of the townships. While Mr. Gill gives it only his general supervision, he is still an active factor in the public affairs of the County. In 1906 he was elected Commissioner of Mercer County and performed the duties of that office with energy and credit until the expiration of his term in January, 1909.

He has also given an able and honorable service of nine years as a member of the school board.

A Republican of strong influence, his name is known far beyond the confines of Mercer County as he has repeatedly served as a delegate to the conventions and twice has been chosen to the state and national gatherings of his party. In 1892 he was selected a delegate to the National Republican Convention which assembled in Chicago, and in 1898 was sent to Harrisburg as a member of the state convention.

In Odd Fellowship he has long played an important part, being identified with Sharpsville Lodge #739 and with the encampment at Sharon. In religion he is Presbyterian.

Carnahan must have moved to Ypsilanti, MI, in 1829, & to Warren Co, IN about 1838, and to Johnson Co., KS. in the late 1850's. From the Warren Republican, Thursday, January 21, 1892:

IN MEMORIAM

J. Carnahan McCord, an old pioneer of Warren County, but for the past thirty-three years a resident of Spring Hill, Kansas, departed this life December 30th, 1891, aged about 87 years, and the funeral took place from the residence on New Year's day. He leaves an aged wife and married children. Deceased and wife for years have been sufferers from cancer. Two years ago they visited a famed doctor in Cincinnati, who pronounced them cured, but after returning home they became as before. Mr. McCord, although so long a resident of Kansas, has many old friends and relatives in Warren county who will grieve the loss of the kindly gentleman who was a friend to all. Five days before his death he was stricken with fever and an already enfeebled frame could not long resist the attack. The soul passed out quietly from the receptacle and joined innumerable friends on the other shore. The wife's home is made lonely, the children fatherless and tho' earth has lost, heaven has gained a true and faithful servant.

Annie Ford ALMIRA: Almira was the daughter of Azariah Beebe of NY and Mary Ryan. She probably died due to childbirth problems - the baby died shortly after.

Ethan was in the Civil War. He states in a letter in his pension file there was another Ethan A. McCord, his cousin, who served in the 15th KS V.I. ?? Ethan lived in Toledo, OH in 1900. He enlisted at Spring Hill, Johnson Co., KS, on 9/8/1861 and was discharged on 7/5/1862. He was 5'8 1/2" with blue eyes and dark hair. He lost his left eye and was shot in the left thigh during the war. According to the Pension file Ethan lived at Spring Hill, KS, 8 or 10 years - Gunnison, CO, about 19 years, left there in 1886 - visited Iowa & Indiana a while, then came to Ohio in 1895 and lived most of the time at the Ohio Soldiers and Sailors Home in Erie Co., Ohio. Interesting that he was married from 1895 to 1908 and again married in 1911 - while living at the Soldier's Home.

Following is a statement made by C.H. Giller:

"In reply would state that sometime in the month of November, 1861, as near as I can remember, Ethan Allen McCord, was shot through the thigh by a Guerrilla party near a place called Johnstown, I think in Missouri, but it is located near the state line. I at the time being Co. Clerk and was busy back at Camp working on Reports - I remember very distinctly however his being brought into Camp badly wounded and also remember the men telling how brave McCord was that after he was shot from his horse he kept on shooting at them until every bullet in his revolver was emptied out - and then tried to cut one of them with his saber - he cried I remember when he was relating the fact of his not being able to kill some of them. He was then granted the privilege of going home - to be treated for his wound and as soon as he recovered he went at it again. It was thought at one time his leg would have to be amputated but the saved it - no better soldier ever entered the U.S. service than McCord - and his leg has troubled him ever since the war."

A statement by W. W. Fenton made 9/9/1889 in Pine Village, Warren County, IN, says that if not for Ethan's friend, James McCord, he would have to have been a public charge. James McCord also made a statement saying he was Ethan's cousin. Since James was 56 years old, this must have been James F.'s son James. He states that Ethan has lived with him for three years.

Don C. McCord shows this Ethan as the son of James F. McCord- the only difference being his birthplace. Don shows him as being born in Indiana - citing the 1860 Warren Co., Indiana Census and the 1900 Lucas Co., Ohio. census. Perhaps James had a son named Ethan also?? EMMA: According to Ethan's pension file, Emma had been married to William Spencer January 20, 1909, and divorced Dec., 1910. After Ethan's death she married Martin J. DeClinton who died November 7, 1947, at Monclova, Ohio.

"Robert McLaughlin, farmer, post-office Jamestown, Penn., was born in Pymatuning Township, Mercer Co., Penn., January 6, 1828. His grandparents were Henry and Nancy McLaughlin, natives of the County Derry, Ireland, who settled in what is now Greene Township toward the close of the last century, where both died. They reared six children: John, Mary, Thomas, William, Nancy and Michael, all of whom are dead." (An excerpt regarding Robert's father, William will be found under William McLaughlin.)

"Our subject has passed most of his life in this county, and was married June 24, 1866, to Martha A., daughter of George and Elizabeth Brown, natives of England, who settled in Mercer County in 1844, where both died. Mrs. McLaughlin was born in England, and is the mother of seven children: William (deceased), Orrin A., Rollin O., Hermer R., Ralph S., John O., and Earl R. Politically Mr. McLaughlin is a Democrat and one of the well-known farmers of his township."

MARTHA: According to Martha McLaughlin, Martha was the daughter of George and Elizabeth Brown, natives of England who settled in Mercer County in 1844.

In 1862 O.H.P. McCord and his son Robert came to Oregon and located in Baker County. As mining was the chief industry at that time, they engaged in this line of work, on what was afterwards named McCord's Gulch and I understand they did very well. My father (Syrenus) came here in 1864 and his first winter he followed mining and was able to save about $1,600.00 which he used to purchase a blacksmith outfit and opened up a shop at Wingville which was also located near Baker. Afterwards he and my Uncle

Robert McCord opened up a blacksmith shop in Baker, that was about 1870.

Robert D. McCord, (son of O.H.P. McCord and Jane Dilley) married Janette Miller and had six sons.

1. Isaac - dead
2. Frank - dead
3. James - dead
4. Clarence - dead
5. Clyde - dead
6. William is living in California.

The McCords originally came from Mercer County, PA. They first immigrated to Wisconsin and located near Mifflin, where my grandfather took up a homestead and farmed until he came west. Grandmother McCord and the daughters located in that section and never came west to live, only for a visit. The boys all came west and lived and died in that section of Oregon. There are still some of the Nolan family living in or near Mifflin, Wisconsin.

JANE: According to the records of Mrs. Gerald Dilley, 26800 Oak Ridge Dr., Wind Lake, WI 53185, the parents of both Jane Dilley and Edmond Dilley (who married Rosannah McCord) were Joseph Dilley and Mary Burnett. Joseph was the son of Thompson Dilley and Jane Dalley.

"Joseph Dilley was born 10 March, 1791 (Biblical record) in New Jersey, Probably in Hardwick Township, Sussex County. . . At the time of Joseph's birth, Thompson Dilley was in debtor's prison in Newton, Sussex County. It is probable that sixteen year old Jane Dalley remained with her family during this time.

Joseph Dilley moved with his parents, younger brothers, and sister to Hubbard Township, Trumbull County, Ohio, about 1803 when he was about 12 years old. On 8 February, 1814, he married Mary Burnett, daughter of Edmund Burnett, another settler from New Jersey. . .

Census records show that Joseph Dilley and his wife lived in Brookfield Township, Trumbull County, in 1820, were back in Hubbard Township in 1830, and then moved across the nearby state line to Pymatuning Township, Mercer County, Pennsylvania, where they lived the rest of their lives so far as we know from public records. Mary Burnett Dilley died 2 September, 1860. Her tombstone age tells us that she was born about 1786. Joseph Dilley died 3 April, 1865. Both Joseph and Mary are buried in the Oak Hill Cemetery at Transfer, Pennsylvania, near his mother Jane Dalley Dilley and other family members."

The children of Joseph and Mary Dilley were: Thompson, Jane, Sarah, Emily, Edmond B., Joseph, Mary, and Hannah.

The Estate Record of Joseph Dilley II (1909) states "Geo. W. Walker, Clerk, was appointed guardian ad litem for G.W.S. McCord, Grace E. McCord, minor children of Syrenus McCord." History of the Pacific Northwest - Biographical Sketches - p. 453

Syrenous Burnett McCord, one of the leading hardware merchants of Eastern Oregon, was born in Mercer Co., PA., in 1842. He went with his parents to Wisconsin when a youth and lived there several years. At the age of 18 he entered into an apprenticeship in a blacksmithship in the city of Blackjack. His boss being the Honorable George W. Strong: and there he served out his time and came out a good workman.

He crossed the plains in 1864, leaving with Colonel Flurney's train. At Baldock's ranch, in the Powder River Valley, Oregon, he at once entered into the blacksmith business at Pocahontas, seven miles northwest of Baker City. He came down the valley the next spring, and started the little town of Wingville, which he named after a Vulcan, but in 1868 came to Baker City and engaged in his trade in partnership with his brother, R.D., who was there before him. The brothers dissolved partnership in 1871: and S.B. entered the hardware business on his own responsibility.

He was a member of the first city council of Baker City, and in 1886, was elected county treasurer on the Democratic ticket, being re-elected the first mayor of Baker City in 1887, and was reelected in 1888. He takes special pleasure in remembering the fact that he was the first to advocate bringing in and operating a water system for Baker City. In that effort he encountered the heavy opposition of a company of capitalists, who desired a franchise for a private enterprise. Clearly seeing the danger of putting so important a public matter in any other than city control, Mr. McCord exerted all his efforts in opposition and was successful; and the citizens of the city may well thank him for his great service.

He had 7 children.

Mr. McCord believes that the resources of Baker City and county are great enough to insure a flourishing future. The combination of mining, farming, lumbering and grazing interest points to a diversity of industry and a consequent large population.

From "Centennial Pioneer Families of Baker County, Oregon" "MCCORD, SYRENUS He arrived first time 1862 by wagon train. Then he returned to East and came back 1865 with five brothers and father. They built a sawmill on Ebell Creek, 1865. First winter spent on McCord Gulch mining. They took out a wheel barrow of gold, about $2,000 worth. That's all they got from mine as they opened a blacksmith shop. He married Angeline Speelman. His living descendants in Baker County are: McCord, Nelson; McCord, Kenneth; McCord, John."

HARVEY: The following is taken from the "Commemorative Biographical Record of the Counties of Rock, Green, Grant, Iowa and Lafayette, Wisconsin" dated 1901. Since I only have pages 686 and 687 this starts in the middle of a section titled "Harvey Cushman". "Robert Cushman never returned to America, but his son became famous as Elder Thomas Cushman. He married Mary, daughter of Isaac Allerton who came to Plymouth from the 'Mayflower'. In 1855 the descendants of this couple numbered 3,336 persons, many of whom were noted for their devotion to principle; a number sacrificed their lives in the Revolution and other conflicts of the nation, and the number included twenty-two clergymen, fifteen lawyers, one Lieutenant-governor of Massachusetts, three members of Congress, and many other public officials. Charlotte Cushman, the famous actress also belonged to the posterity of Elder Thomas Cushman.

Barnabas Cushman, grandfather of Harvey, served in a Massachusetts regiment at the battle of Bunker Hill. After the war he became one of the pioneers of Wilmington, Vermont, locating at that place when it was a wilderness and the nearest store was at Greenfield, Mass. His son, Barnabas, married Miss Polly, daughter of David Cory, a Revolutionary veteran who took part in two bayonet charges at Bunker Hill. This couple lived successively in New York and Pennsylvania, and in 1856 came to Wisconsin, settling in Lima, Grant county, where Mr. Cushman died at the age of seventy-two years. During the war of 1812 he did several months' service in the garrison at Oswego, N.Y. His wife passed away at the age of seventy years. They were the parents of eleven children of whom seven sons and three daughters grew up: Alonzo died at Mifflin; Ezra, in California; Lucy (Mrs. James Owens), at Lincoln, Neb.; Mary (Mrs. Jesse Brown), in Pennsylvania; and Sarah, in New York. The survivors with their present homes are as follows: Obad, at Moro, Ore.; Cephas, at Rewey, Wis.; Laura (Mrs. Andrew Oldfield), California; Warren, in Kansas; Silas, at Lincoln, Neb.; and Harvey, whose name heads this notice.

In 1855 Harvey Cushman left home and came to Iowa county, Wis. A few years later he purchased land near the present village of Rewey, which he cultivated until 1883, when he sold out and moved to Spink County, S. Dak. After spending eight years there he returned to Rewey, where he has since dealt in lumber, grain and other produce, also operating a feed mill.

On Aug. 13, 1862, he enlisted in Company E, 30th Wis. V.I., and was in continuous service until September, 1865. His company spent the first two years in the Northwest, building a fort at Bayfield, Wis., in which vicinity the Chippewa Indians were threatening the settlers. Thence they went by way of Milwaukee to St. Paul, and marched across Minnesota and erected Fort Wadsworth (now Fort Sisseton), in Dakota. From there the company was sent by way of St. Louis and Paducah to Louisville, where it was joined by the colonel with the balance of the regiment, which had been employed elsewhere in the Northwest. The regiment started to join Gen. Thomas at Nashville, but was intercepted by a telegram, and remained on guard at Bowling Green, where a day or two later they heard of the victory over Gen. Hood. During the balance of the war they were engaged in subduing bushwackers, marching over a good share of Kentucky. While thus employed, to the credit of the 30th Wisconsin, the excellent discipline which prevailed among the members should be mentioned. Though they had abundant opportunities for plundering and pillaging, they uniformly refrained from disorderly conduct, and won an enviable reputation among the Union officers, as well as with the citizens among whom they were quartered. Mr. Cushman's brother, Warren, served in the same company.

Mr. Cushman was married in 1856 to Miss Caroline, daughter of O.H.P. and Jane McCord, who were early settlers of Iowa county. The latter died there, but Mr. McCord passed away at Baker City, Ore. Mrs. Caroline Cushman was born in Mercer county, Penn., and died in Iowa county, Wis., March 14, 1881, aged nearly thirty-five years. She was a devout member of the Advent Church, and left four children: Virgil C., deceased; Mertie A., who died May 1, 1901, at the age of twenty-one years and one day (her funeral was one of the largest ever held in Rewey, denoting the universal respect of the community for herself and the family); Walter N.; and Idella R., both of Iowa county. He was again married Oct. 27, 1881, to Maria A. Burton, a native of Mifflin township, and daughter of William and Jane A. Burton. By this union he has one daughter and one son, named respectively Amy J. and Harvey R. His posterity also includes eight grandchildren. He is a deacon of the Advent Society at Rewey, which he helped to organize in 1876. He is also connected with the Grand Army of the Republic and the Masonic fraternity. His life has been one of industry and usefulness, and a great host of friends unite in wishing him continued health and prosperity.

Following is a letter written by Harvey to a neice while in the Civil War:

Paducah, Kentucky

Nov. 5th, 1864 Dear Neice,

Do you think I will never answer your letter? Well, I will tell you how it was. I received your letter while at Ft. Wadsworth. A few days later I sat down and wrote you a long letter before the mail went out we were ordered to report to St. Paul which we did after 16 days hard marching. So I thought I would not send that letter but I would write another. But before I got about it we were ordered from there to St. Louis, Mo. While on our way from St. Paul to St. Louis we had to pass through our own state, some of us within a few miles of home. I was within 25 miles of home, but there was no chance for any one to see a friend as our orders were to report immediately. We, naturally, looked wishfully toward our homes trying to think it was well that we did not see our friends as it would only be for a short time but somehow I felt that if I could only stay with my friends but for one night it would be a great consolation. We supposed that we could stop at St. Louis until our Colonel and the other six Cos. would join us. But after two days stay in St. Louis one evening, being the 28th of Oct. while I was at church an officer came in and gave notice for all soldiers present belonging to the 30th Wisc. to report to their Cos. immediately, which we did. Was ordered to have our things packed with four days' rations, ready to start by 3 o'clock next morning. So you see our orders came very sudden and also in the night. Well we were ready by the time appointed, shouldered our knapsacks, marched from the Camp to the City (being about four miles), crossed the river and went on board the cane boat for Cairo, at which place we arrived about midnight. After standing in the mud and cold about two hours we were marched on board a steam boat bound for this place. By this time we well understood where we were bound as it was rumored in Cairo that this City (Paducah) had already been attacked. But upon arriving here we found all quiet except that the citizens were very busy moving their families and goods from this place fearing an attack. We have been looking for the rebel every day as they are reported only a few miles from here...

General Meredith is in command here now. Has about 10,000 troops, mostly Inf't. Day before yesterday there were 20 rebels came into this city from Forrest's command. They say that Forrest's men are deserting by hundreds, that nine-tenths of the rebels they have been with will lay down their arms as soon as they know that Old Abe is elected. We haven't heard from our Colonel or the six Cos. with him since he may or may not be on his way to join us. Our four Cos. are assigned to duty in the city, do patrol and provost guard duty, the other troops do the picket duty now though our whole detachment (of the 30th Wis.) was on picket one night since we have been here. By the way, it rained all that day and night and think I shall never forget that night but it did not make me sick and it is pleasant weather now and we all feel tip-top, never better suited since we became soldiers. We were very highly complimented the other day. The inspecting officer, one of the Gen. staff, said we were the best looking soldiers he had ever seen, that such troops did not need inspecting. We are camped in line of battle, our detachment is in the advance. If the rebels attack us, I think they will do so before election day or on that day.

I must close now. Don't follow my example but write so I will receive yours before we leave here. With much love to all and hoping this will find you all well as it leaves me. Good bye.

Harvey Cushman P.S. Address to Paducah, Ky., Co E, 30th Wis., Inf't.

SARAH died 23-Oct-1872, BOSCOBEL, GRANT CO, WI,<sup>448</sup> BUR BOSCOBEL CEMETARY, BOSCOBEL, WI,<sup>450</sup> CHILDREN 9. GEORGE: G.W. was the son of George Reynolds and Mary Guthrie (per Freda Reynolds, Rt. 1, Box 156, Boscobel, WI 53805). He is buried in Boscobel Cemetery near the old wooden storage shed. Otis Reynolds wrote that George W. Reynolds was George and Mary's only son. "They lived near Pittsburgh, PA. My grandfather came to Wisconsin and settled on Buckwheat Ridge down some where between Lancaster and Platteville. My father was born there in 1848 the year Wisconsin became a state."

From "The Reynolds Family History" by Deborah J. Reynolds Biesemeier:

"George W. and Sarah (McCord) Reynolds first four children were born in Pennsylvania. In 1843 they moved west to the territory that would soon become the state of Wisconsin.

George and Sarah managed to raise all nine of their children to adulthood - quite an accomplishment in those times. Sometime between 1860 and 1870 they moved north into Crawford County and settled in the Marietta Valley. Census records indicate that they owned $1,600.00 worth of real estate and personal property and were making their living by farming. Census records also tell that none of the members of the family were able to read or write.

Their five oldest sons, Seth, David, George, Robert and William, enlisted and served with the Union Army during the Civil War. All but one, Robert survived and returned home, but Seth and William suffered permanent health problems.

George applied for 'Dependent Father's Benefits' in 1889 as a result of Robert's death in the U.S. Army. Many statements and affidavits were required to prove his marriage to Sarah, Robert's mother, his relationship and dependency on his son, Robert, as well as his current need for pension benefits. One such statement, sworn by a James K. McCord of Buffalo County, Nebraska, (and possibly a relative of Sarah's) (Inserted by L. Dundon: This is very likely Walker's son.), reads as follows: '... I have been well and personally acquainted with George W. Reynolds ever since I was a small boy. Claimant has not been an able bodied man since I can remember. He has always complained of a weakness of his back and trouble in his breast and his walk and movements shows that there is something the matter with him.'

An affidavit sworn by Jacob Christ, 'aged 45 years, and a resident of Marietta, County of Crawford and State of Wisconsin' states: 'that he has been well acquainted with the above named claimant George W. Reynolds since 1855, and know that the said George W. Reynolds has no income of any kind except from his little farm consisting of about forty acres improved, and ahs not had since my first acquaintance with him, that to the best of my knowledge and belief the income from his farm has not exceeded the some of two hundred dollars in any one year from 1868 to 1889. I know that he has been poor and has had to live verry (sic) close all this time, and still does. I know these facts of my own knowledge, having lived a neighbor to him all this time, and being myself a farmer.'

The Crawford County, Wisconsin, Tax Lists showed George's assessed property in 1888 as 'Real Estate: $230.00 and Personal Property: $79.00.'

George received a monthly pension of $12.00 from May 27, 1889, until his death in October of 1896.

When Sarah died in 1872 at the age of 55, Francis, aged 13 years, and Samuel, aged 7 years; were still living at home. About one year later, at the age of 58, George married 43 year old Diana Payne. Diana had previously been married to Jonathan Payne, who had died while in the army in 1865. Diana and Jonathan had eight children of which one, 9 year old Joseph, was still living at home at the time of his mother's remarriage. George and Diana were married for almost 23 years. Diana died at the age of 66 and George died 3 months later at the age of 81 years, 7 months and 21 days."

SETH died 13-Sep-1893, SCOTT, CRAWFORD CO., WI,<sup>456</sup> BUR CHRIST CEM., MARIETTA TWP, CRAWFORD CO., WI,<sup>455</sup> CHILDREN 16. The following was taken from "The Reynolds Family History", researched and written by Deborah J. Reynolds Biesebeier:

"Seth and Eleanor were married in Clifton, Wisconsin, by Lyman Haskell, Justice of the Peace. They had 15 children. On August 12, 1862, Seth enlisted in the Army of the United States, Company D of the Twentieth Wisconsin Regiment Volunteer Infantry. His physical description was listed as 5 feet, 11 inches tall, fair complexion, hazel eyes and brown hair. He was involved in the Battle of Prairie Grove and Seige of Vicksburg. Although his enlistment was for a period of 3 years, he was discharged on June 15, 1864, at Brownsville, Texas for disability. His discharge papers state that he was unfit for service at a degree of 75%, suffering from 'chronic diarrhea, much emaciation and veins of the left leg extensively varicosed'. In about 1888 he applied for an invalid pension, being declared 2/3 disabled and unable to obtain subsistence by manual labor.

Seth died in 1893 of 'inflammation of the stomach' and is buried in the Haney Church Graveyard. After Seth's death, Eleanor applied for a widow's pension to support herself and their 6 children still under the age of 16 years...After Eleanor died in 1916 an Application for Reimbursement was filed by her son Andrew to collect expenses from the federal government. He applied for payment of the following: Physician - $31.00, Medicine - $5.90, Undertaker - $95.00, and Livery - $3.00. this application stated that Eleanor had become ill while visiting at the home of her daughter, Nellie Steel, and died there after about 2 weeks. The cause of death was listed as 'general debility and bronchitis and complication'. At the time of her death Eleanor owned real estate valued at $320.00 consisting of a house and one lot." ELEANOR: Ellen was the daughter of Andrew McKnight and Prudence Cromwell. (Per Carol Higgins of LWR Genealogical Center, Wauzeka, WI 53826) Carol Higgins showed her death date as listed from cemetery records. Freda Reynolds shows her death date as 9/13/1893. Ellen's younger brother, Edward, married Seth's niece, Adelle Reynolds.

AMBROSE died 20-Oct-1979, LIBERTY, TX,<sup>448</sup> BUR 23-Oct-1979, DAYTON, TX,<sup>448</sup> CHILDREN 18. According to Nellie Brown, Ambrose or Andrew was married 4 times; however we do not know the names of the 2nd & 3rd wives. From "Reynolds Family History" by Deborah Bieseemeier: "Ambrose was only 16 years old when he married Flossie Alcott. Soon after the birth of their 4th child Ambrose left his family on May 5, 1921, and was never seen by them again. In 1980 his daughter, Nellie, discovered that he had lived in IL for a time, worked in Chicago and upon retiring had moved to Rosebud, Texas. She discovered through a copy of his obituary that he had remarried 3 times and had 11 children by his 4th wife. In August, 1981, 2 years after his father's death, she flew to Texas to meet some of her half brothers and sisters for the first time." FLORENCE: Flossie was the daughter of William Alcott (b.7/17/1861 in MO, d. 1/30/46 in Pope Co., MN) & Anna Mae Ray (b.4/23/1870 in Madison Co., IA, d.9/3/52 Des Moines, IA). William was the son of Lorenzo Alcock (b.6/9/1838 Clay Co., MO, d.3/1/1878 Madison Co., IA) & Ann Rebecca Knobs (b.1839 Woods Co., VA, d.8/7/ 1918 Madison Co., IA). Anna Mae was the daughter of Isaac Ray (b.2/11/1839 Shelby Co., IN, d. 7/7/1906 Ticonic, IA) & his wife (b. 11/14/1842 Terre Haute, IN, d. 7.7/1940 Villard, MN). BERTHA: Bertha was the daughter of Albert and Valentine Fletcher.

Per Minnie Reynolds: "Otis built our little home where I still live here in Boscobel and it is real comfortable. I love it, as it was my first home I ever lived in that I could call 'home'... (My oldest daughter), Loretta, is the one who played with McCord girls. This family had 3 girls and they spent the summer with us out on the farm. We only lived 18 years on the farm, then Otis' mom passed away & some one had to take care of his Dad & he wanted Otis to move in with him. So we had a sale and moved to town." MINNIE: Minnie is still living (1994) in Boscobel, WI. Although nearly 100 years old, she still writes interesting, lengthy letters. From "Reynolds Family History" by Deborah Biesemeier: "Otis and Minnie farmed about 100 acres in Crawford county on a farm previously owned by Otis' father.. After selling the farm and moving back to a home in Boscobel, Otis worked as a carpenter. He died of a heart attack in 1979.. Minnie's parents: Henry Kuhlman and Lottie Ray. It is my will and I so direct, that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of my estate, as soon as practicable.

I will and direct that the hereinafter described obligations already existing, and any further obligations given as advancements upon the interest of my heirs or of either of them shall be estimated as part of my estate for arriving at the amount thereof.

I will and direct that the amount of my estate so determined, shall be equally divided between my sons and daughters, William L. NOTE: We received information that George died in Steams, PA. Larry Horsfall shows his death place as Ellenboro, WI. This does make more sense as he was there in 1900 Census.?? MARY: In the 1870 Census, William Kelley - age 62 from Ireland - was living with G.W. and Mary - probably Mary's father?) The Grant Co., WI, Deaths shows Mary's parents as William A. Kelley and Agnes J. These records also show the cause of death as paralysis and her residence as Lancaster.

I don't think Agnes is the same person as Augusta as both are shown in the 1870 Census - Augusta is 17 and Agnes is 4. In 1880 only Agnes was living at home - age 14.
